CHANGE IS GOOD;
TRANSITIONS ARE HARD.

I don't like change. Never have, never will. Ever since my family uprooted me from Long Island, N.Y., when I was 7 years old, I didn't like the idea of leaving things comfortable, certain and treasured – behind.

Once again, I find myself at a crossroads. And of course, it is my four daughters who have me zigging and zagging across this cloverleaf of emotion.

It seems as though it was just four short years ago that my oldest daughter, Beth, was graduating from Chelmsford High School as National Honor Society president and as a Gold Medal Scholar. By the time you read this, she will have graduated from Brandeis University with a double major in biology and neuroscience. She hopefully will have figured out where and with whom she will be living come August when she begins what I hear is a long and challenging road at Tufts Medical School. Not to mention how that education will be financed.

Meanwhile, in addition to dealing with that major transition, this year has also seen my youngest daughter, Jennie, begin her stint at CHS, and my third daughter, Kristi, a junior, start her college search.

These are milestones to be proud of, no doubt. But I believe my hair was less gray, my stomach more firm, and my fingernails less ravaged the first go-round. It is a bit-tersweet time, to be sure.

Jennie is adjusting to Chelmsford High, I think. Homework remains a challenge. Getting it done at a reasonable time is a never-ending battle, which may not be all her fault with the switch from block to traditional scheduling. But she's performing well in the classroom and on the track. And she couldn't ask for better friends.

At this writing, Kristi and I have just begun visiting colleges. She's not sure what she wants to study or where she wants to go, but as she is prone to do, she is finding the beauty of all that surrounds her and the promise that it holds. I will cling to that myself like a prayer, and that God may see fit to influence those in charge of financial aid at whichever school she chooses.

My third daughter, Alyssa, finishing her sophomore year at

❖ PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE ❖

Terry McSheehy

HAPPY FOURTH OF JULY!

I say that with full confidence that you will receive this in plenty of time for the Fourth of July

As I end the 9th year of my presidency, I want to take a moment to thank the many people who have helped me over the years. They are truly appreciated and I will long remember their generosity and friendship.

We had our 20th Hall of Fame inductions ceremonies on March 13th at the Radisson Hotel in Nashua. We had nine outstanding candidates. It was a great night and everything went very well. The food, the service and attention to detail of the staff was again superb. This year we also featured a 20th reunion for the Hall of Famers. It was held on the afternoon of the 13th at Chelmsford High School. The activities included a tour of the renovated high school conducted by CHS students. The guides did a great job and we thank them heartily for their efforts. The Hall of Famers really seemed to enjoy the opportunity to see what was new at the high school.

I am again asking all members and any non-members who read this to tell us at the CHSAA how we can better serve you. We are seeing a disturbing lack of renewals from our membership and are trying to understand why. If we could retain only 50% of those who drop out we could raise our membership significantly and make for a much more solvent and viable organization. So please let us know. You can contact any member of the Board of Directors or send an e-mail to George Simonian or me. Your help in this matter will be greatly appreciated. My e-mail address is terry.mcsheehy@comcast.net. I have received some great feedback but am looking for more.

I want to thank Rob Russo for his efforts with regard to the Web site. Rob has worked very hard to coordinate this and has created a very nice looking site. While it does not have all of the bells and whistles I had originally envisioned, every day it gets more user friendly and informative for our members. Please take a moment to check it out at CHSAlumni.org

We had our annual Endowment Fund Awards night where we presented 104 awards to deserving student and alumni of CHS totaling over $45,000.00. While this is still down from what we usually give, the fact that we were able to give so much was a tribute to the work of the endowment fund finance committee. This was a very enjoyable evening for all of us who were involved and we hope that in the future some of you will find the time to join us for this evening and see how wonderful it is to give back!

It is always an honor to be the President of the CHSAA, and I hope to be writing to you again in the fall as the president. Thank you for allowing me to be your President.

We will once again be on the Common the night of the 4th of July and morning of the 5th with our booth. Please take a minute to stop by and say hello to us.

Again, have happy and safe Fourth of July holiday. 🇺🇸

Brandeis, is also in this awkward transition phase. For the second time in four years, she will be saying goodbye to her big sister. It was tough for her to let go then. And while it may be hard again, she needs to know she is second to no one in this world: not in school, not in track (bragging alert: she holds the CHS record in the 2-mile with 11:11); and certainly not in spirit. My hope for her is that although I love the fact that she enjoys so much being with her family, her sisters in particular, is that she realizes what a strong and special person she is.

At the risk of bragging some more, and I will freely take that liberty, I am so incredibly proud of our Beth. As I wrote in a column for The Sun four years ago on the advent of her graduation from CHS, she has wrung the most of her experience at Brandeis: academically, near the top her class with an A average; athletically, a national competitor in the both the mile and 1500 meter races in track; cross-country and track captain, and an All-American for her performance in the 1200-meter leg of the distance medley relay her senior year. She was named Brandeis' Scholar Athlete of the Year, and was also elected into Phi Beta Kappa, which I'm told is for the brightest of the bright – 1 percent of college students make it. And most importantly, she has made great friendships with people whom she not only loves and respects, but that her parents do as well.

Whether it is the camaraderie of running endless miles together, or studying page-after-page of mind-numbing formulas, she seems to have truly enjoyed these fleeting four years. And I know she will be sad, as I will, to leave them behind.

But go on, we must.

Jennie will continue to thrive, because she is a positive soul, and a hard worker, but also seems to be able to laugh a lot.

Wherever she ends up, Kristi's school of choice will prove a dream come true, and hopefully come with a pot of gold at the end of that rainbow.

Alyssa will realize that while that it's great for someone to have her back, she could do it herself all along.

And as for Beth? She will at the very least find herself inducted into the CHS Hall of Fame, if not for curing cancer or autism or Alzheimer's, then for simply being the best that she could possibly be, which she's been from the outset. I love them all. And I'm a lucky guy. 🍀

CHELMSFORD HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

❖ PRINCIPAL'S REPORT ❖

Anne O'Bryant

As I write for the spring CHS Alumni Newsletter, I have so many wonderful events to share with you. CHS students are once again shining stars in so many ways with their successful academic and extra-curricular achievements. I am continually amazed at the caliber of student that our school and community continue to foster year after year.

Town Meeting will be at the end of April, but early indications suggest that the funding is much better than anticipated over the winter months. I am cautiously optimistic that the budget will be a little better than had been anticipated. I am keeping my fingers crossed that we will not have to lose staff or have our students lose opportunities in the Foreign Language, Fine Arts and Practical Arts areas. These programs are critical for engaging our students to be committed members of our school. I hope that I never have to cut such valuable opportunities for our students.

Chelmsford High School recently hosted a weekend tour for our Alumni "Hall of Fame" members. It was a pleasure to have those members who graduated from the current CHS building see the changes made to the high school since they left, and to showcase the building to those who attended Chelmsford High School in a former high school building. Some of our CHS students gave up a Saturday afternoon to take our former graduates and guests on tour around the building. It was a great opportunity to bring both students and graduates together to see what CHS is all about today. I want to thank George Simonian for organizing the afternoon along with Maura Devaney who currently teaches Health at CHS and is a CHS graduate from the Class of 1988. The afternoon tour of the high school along with the CHS alumni dinner that evening were both wonderful opportunities to visit with so many of our graduates and renew old friendships.

At the Alumni dinner I shared some of the events that were happening that week. In just one recent week, we had students recognized at Winter Sports Awards Night, our students and teachers hosted an Parent Orientation night for parents of the incoming freshmen Class of 2014, we crowned "Mr. CHS" 2010 at our annual DECA competition, our Theater Guild won Massachusetts State Finals in the Theatre Guild competition play, and our school participated in MTV's "Made" show auditions. Students recently raised money for Haiti during PLUS Blocks and "Listening Lunches". Other students are currently collecting dresses for the "Belle of the Ball"

(a local community prom dress collection project), while others are collecting "Coins for a Cure" to benefit Childrens' Hospital in Boston. There is no end to the opportunities that our students take advantage of in order to do for others and achieve at the highest level.

I recently received three unrelated e-mails about how special our students at CHS are. The first e-mail was from a teacher in another district who had observed our students at a DECA conference consisting of thousands of students. This teacher wrote to tell me how our CHS students were so respectful, supportive, and engaged at the conference. He stated that their behavior in the audience was outstanding and how they were positive role models for other students. The second e-mail mentioned how talented our students in the Theater Guild were and how truly impressed he was with their performances. The individual who wrote me was a professional actor. Finally, the last email concerned one of our athletes. Rebecca Wong, a senior, was competing in a ski race this winter. During her run she missed a gate, so she left before the award ceremony knowing that she was out of medal contention. Her missing the gate was not noticed by race officials. Unbeknownst to her, she was named as the medal winner for that race and was named as one of the top ten skiers in the state and reported as such in the local media. Rebecca contacted the MIAA (Massachusetts Interscholastic Athletic Association) organization to let them know that she had missed the gate during the race and that she should be disqualified. She wanted the proper race contestant to receive this award. The MIAA contacted me to share what they felt was such an outstanding expression of sportsmanship. No one would have ever known about the missed gate, but Rebecca would never have wanted to accept any award she didn't deserve. These e-mails are typical examples of the type of students we have at CHS.

Our DECA students won many awards at the Boston conference. Some of these students will continue on to conferences in New Orleans and California. The DECA students also organized a most successful competition for "Mr. CHS". Nine seniors competed for the title. The students were evaluated by our staff member judges in the categories of dance, talent, and communication. All of the contestants spoke of how much CHS meant to them and how they appreciated all the opportunities they had to be successful. Kevin Tang, Class President, was named "Mr. CHS". His talent and enthusiasm truly makes him a great representative for "Mr. CHS". There is no doubt that he will be a future member of the Alumni "Hall of Fame".

I hope that all of our local alumni members save the dates of May 6, 7, 8, 2010 to see the musical production of "Hello Dolly". I am anxious to see our extremely talented students in this musical. This year the CHS Drama Guild made it to the State Finals for the first time in eight years. At this time, the Drama Guild is planning to attend their first ever New England Regionals competition in Maine. Check out the CHS homepage and click on the Theatre Guild link for time and ticket information. The Theater Guild is also in the process of raising money for a storage facility. They are selling personalized engraved bricks for a walkway. The bricks are $100 each. It would be great to have every graduating class memorialized as part of the brick walkway. See the web site for more information.

Our students are now participating in spring athletics and I am looking forward to another season of success and good sportsmanship. In May we have the 12th Annual Chelmsford 24-Hour Relay Challenge on May 22-23 to look forward to, and of course I am looking forward to a great senior week and a successful graduation. Senior week is always such a great celebration for our students and one that they will remember for a long time.

I can't tell you how proud I am of our students and their continued demonstration of strong character, ethics and personal bests. The Chelmsford High community, supported by parents and teachers, makes for a unique community of respect and commitment for the high school. These strong relationships encourage our graduates to come back and work at CHS, stay in the community to raise their children, and continue to support our schools. This is what makes the Chelmsford High School Alumni Association such a special organization.

Just to let you know the value of the CHS Alumni Association, CHS has had over half of the class of 2010 apply for Alumni Scholarships. This translates to over 170 student essays for applications and over 200 applications to review. A special thank you to the committee who reviews these applications. To all the members, I want to thank you for your support of our students who graduate each year, with the scholarships that are offered to them.

My best to all....
Sincerely,
Anne L. O'Bryant

FINE AND PERFORMING ARTS REPORT

IN THE ARTS

By Christina Whittlesey

As the flowers bloom and spring begins to scent the air, the CHS Fine and Performing Arts Department is welcoming exciting developments! Our students, parents, and faculty members have accomplished much over the past months, and I look forward to sharing their endeavors with you.

This month, Theater news reigns supreme, as for the first time in history, Chelmsford High School has won the Massachusetts High School Drama Guild Competition with their incredible performance of Almost, Maine! Congratulations are due to director Lauren Cochran and the excellent actors and stage crew involved in this production. The cast and crew then traveled to Falmouth, Maine to represent Massachusetts at the New England Drama Festival during the weekend of April 15-17th. We are also looking forward to this year's musical by Carl Rondina and Ms. Cochran, Hello, Dolly! More information about all of these productions can be found at the Theater Guild's new Website, www.chelmsfordtheater.com.

In art news, many of our CHS art students are currently participating in K-12 art exhibit at the DOE building in Malden, MA, which will run through the end of May. Chelmsford was specifically invited to share student art at this prestigious location, speaking to the excellence of our teacher and student work in the district. This exhibit, facilitated by CHS Art Teacher Terry Karangioze, is currently being featured in the Fine Arts Department's monthly Chelmsford Channel 22 TV show, "Spotlight on Fine Arts," which airs locally three times a week, as well as on the DOE website, www.mass.doe.edu. In addition to this and many other worthwhile projects with which our art students are involved, including a K-12 exhibit at the Chelmsford Public Library and an all-town art show at the Drum Hill Starbucks in Chelmsford, our department has once again won several awards at the annual Boston Globe Scholastic Art & Writing Award Competition. Two students here at CHS, Katie Guay and Jillian Montouri, were awarded Honorable Mention prizes, and were presented with special awards at the March 23rd School Committee Meeting.

In music news, the CHS Band collaborated with the Chelmsford Community Band for an exciting performance at the Chelmsford Performing Arts Center on April 6th, and our Choral and Orchestral groups shared their music with an enthusiastic crowd at the PAC on April 7th for their annual concerts to welcome in the spring. At these concerts, the band, led by Director Matthew Sexauer, and the Orchestra, directed by Kristin Chartier, showcased their programs that will be performed at this year's MICCA music festival on April 10, where the groups will work with national adjudicators.

Our most recent alumni article discussed the Northeast District Music Festivals, in which select student musicians are chosen through an audition process to perform with students from many towns and cities in MA. Many of our CHS students were chosen to participate in this festival, and I applaud all of them, as well as their excellent directors. Of these students, those who received a score in the top 50% of their area were eligible to audition for the MMEA All-State Ensembles. This year, three of our CHS students, Gwendolyn Straeffler (Chorus), Jarred Velazquez (Band), and Emily Luan (Orchestra) were selected to participate in the All-State festival, performed at Symphony Hall in Boston at the end of March. Congratulations to these students and their CHS directors!

We are fortunate to have such a supportive community for the Arts, and the faculty and I look forward to continuing our work with the CHS students through the spring.

I would like to thank the faculty in the department for their tireless commitment to our department, school, and students. They are:

MIKE O'KEEFE '87

A 1987 graduate of Chelmsford High School, Mike O'Keefe fondly reminisces about teachers who made a difference for him. "Mr. Pasquale was always in touch with what his students were interested in," effectively using conversations with them to lead into the lesson of the day. He "was never in a hurry" always making sure that his students understood the material. Other teachers who left a lasting impression on Mike include: Jack Lang, Barry Ware, and Bill Christman. While academics always came first, Mike played on both the baseball and basketball teams and will forever remember how exciting it was when Chelmsford won both the baseball and basketball championships in his senior year. From his baseball coach, Bill Schoenfeld, and his basketball coach, Tom Gallagher, Mike learned that keeping up with schoolwork came first and that commitment and goal setting were life skills.

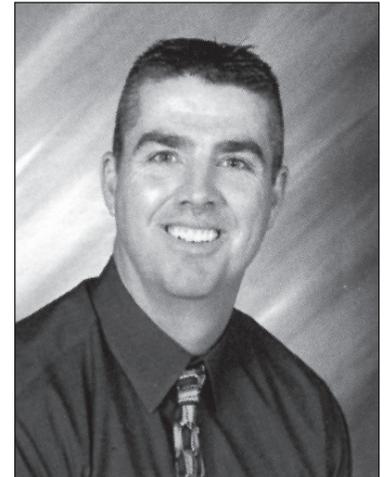

Mike took those skills on to Assumption College where it wasn't until he had graduated that he decided to enroll in a teacher certification program there, which ultimately led him to a teaching position at North High School in Worcester from 1993 to 1997. During that time Mike was also busy coaching freshmen baseball at CHS. It was at the suggestion of Athletic Director, Jack Fletcher (CHS '68) that Mike interview for a teaching position at Chelmsford High School and was hired in 1997 to teach history, joining a long list of other CHS graduates who have come back to Chelmsford High School to teach. Back then, Mike taught across the hall from Jack and recalls that he was a mentor to him. "I have never met anyone who is so totally about kids; they are his passion."

Today the same could be said of O'Keefe who is "totally about kids" in the classroom and on the baseball field. If you were to call his classroom, you would probably hear a student cheerfully answer, "Mr. O'Keefe's wonderful world of learning," words that resonate exactly how students feel about this dynamic history teacher. Both in the classroom and on the field, Mike sets high expectations for his students and his athletes and guides them towards setting goals for themselves and working to achieve those goals. Mike comments, "I teach life skills that kids are going to use like working hard, applying what you learn, being committed and dealing graciously with both success and adversity." Mike currently teaches world history to freshmen and sociology to juniors and seniors. "The world history is great because I've always enjoyed history. You can make such a difference in freshmen's high school careers giving them the proper start. I also love teaching juniors and seniors," Mike remarks. He goes on to say, "When people ask me what I teach, I tell them that I teach students. The material, while very important, is a tool to reaching young adults."

In the classroom the upbeat, energetic and enthusiastic O'Keefe has the amazing ability to engage each of his students by fostering a sense of community in which students feel comfortable while being encouraged to step out of that comfort zone to grow as individuals. Mike always remembers to keep his finger on the pulse of these young people, providing them time to discuss their lives, as well as the current events that influence them daily. Embracing creativity and innovation, O'Keefe often presents a riddle, prompting students to think outside of the box to arrive at the answer, or he may have students place their shirts across a "moat" so that a visitor to the class can enter as he teaches a lesson on chivalry.

And what do O'Keefe's students say about their teacher? One student responds, "Mr. O'Keefe taught me that I can push my limits and not give up on things." Another says, "He brought the history curriculum alive and encouraged me to step out of my comfort zone." Still another replies,

"He taught me to no longer be shy; I now speak with confidence when I talk." Finally, "He showed me the importance of living life to the fullest and laughing at least ten times a day."

Outside of his own class, Mike may be found helping at a Best Buddies meeting, checking on a colleague who may have been ill, sharing a riddle with an English class or encouraging a student who may be struggling in a math class. Or you may find him enjoying an evening at home with his wife Mary Beth O'Brien (CHS '87), laughing and playing with five-year-old son Jimmy and two-year-old daughter Katie.

When asked what is the greatest challenge facing teachers today, O'Keefe replies, "Motivating kids who are part of our technology-driven society." He goes on to say that more responsibility is placed on teachers today than ever before. As for students, the biggest challenge for them is "that more is expected of them because of our fast-paced society."

And when asked what has kept him at CHS, Mike responds without hesitation, "Being an alum... I have developed a pride over time. I had such a great high school experience in Chelmsford. I now have the opportunity to give back to my community. I would not want to be anywhere else. It's not everyone who has the good fortune to be able to look forward to going to work every day. My job is challenging, fun, rewarding. I hope that I will feel that way for many years to come."

While Mike may reminisce about teachers who have made a difference for him, little does he realize how much of a difference he has made in the lives of so many young people as well as in the lives of his colleagues and fellow coaches. Mike is a true leader and role model, living his life setting an example for others to follow.

In the words of Mike's dean, Heather Galante, "Mr. O'Keefe is a gem. He is the rare type of teacher who balances delivery of content with development of character. While he values high grades from students, he places more emphasis on integrity and being a good human being. With decades to teach before his retirement, it is safe to say Mr. O'Keefe has already achieved legendary status in the eyes of his students and colleagues." ❧

CHS STUDENT PROFILE

By Debbie Haywood ('74)

TIM DOHERTY

This month's profile is a student who is not only very special to me, but has very deep roots in Chelmsford. Timothy Doherty is the fourth generation to graduate from Chelmsford High. He is the son of Paul and Robin (Greenwood '73) Doherty. His grandparents, Mildred and Raymond Greenwood, as well as his great grandfather, all attended Chelmsford schools. He is also the great nephew of longtime Chelmsford High teacher Eileen Fletcher.

Growing up, Tim heard of the many good times and deep traditions not only at Chelmsford High, but in town as well. Tim and his brother John grew up listening to stories about the high school and community. They loved to listen to their grandfather, Raymond, tell them what life used to be like in Chelmsford and many of the advantages of growing up in a small town.

Tim has made his own impact at Chelmsford High. Dean Heather Galante sums it up best, saying, "Tim is a smart, athletic, and funny young man. He is a quiet but effective leader admired by teachers and peers. Tim isn't flashy but nonetheless has a great presence due to his sincere and genuine nature. Tim Doherty is an asset to his teammates, the classroom and the broader community at Chelmsford High School."

He has been involved in sports since he was a young boy, playing youth soccer and his two loves, basketball and baseball. He came through both the Chelmsford Youth Basketball League and the Chelmsford Little League, playing for both in town and travel teams. He continued to play sports in high school, being voted by his teammates to serve as both basketball and baseball captain. He was awarded the Most Valuable Player on the basketball team as well as the prestigious Alumni Association's Thomas Gallagher basketball scholarship.

CHS graduate, teacher and coach Michael O'Keefe ('87), calls him a "well-rounded person. Timmy has managed a demanding routine in his years at Chelmsford High School. Tim has been a member of both the varsity baseball and basketball programs. Playing a varsity sport at Chelmsford High School requires hours and hours of preparation on and off the playing fields. Tim has put in these hours while maintaining honor roll grades for all four years at Chelmsford High School."

One of the Tim's favorite community activities is working with both youth basketball and baseball players. He volunteers at camps and tryouts as well as coaching in the Lions Basketball league. Coach O'Keefe states, "Knowing and observing Tim as I have over the past four years I can think of no better role model for the youth of Chelmsford to emulate."

While sports and community have been a big part of Tim's life, so have academics. Tim plans to attend

Merrimack College in the fall and major in communications with a concentration in journalism. His English teacher, John Kamal, who many of you may fondly recall, feels this is a perfect career for Tim. He states, "Modest in his demeanor and humble about his successes, including the varsity status he attained as a sophomore athlete, Tim is a mature, intelligent and ebullient young man who sports a winning smile and never lets pass a chance to catch you off guard with his sense of humor, an asset as well as a morale builder for any classroom. In his chosen future career, possibly as a broadcast journalist he will make his mark as an adult just as he has indelibly done as a teenager."

Tim is involved in a variety of activities outside of sports. He is an active member of the Class of 2010 as both a class representative and mentor to the freshmen. As class advisors for the class, both myself and Josh Blagg ('91), have had the opportunity to work closely with Tim and his friends. His quick wit and endless energy have made an impact on all he does. Josh sums it up best, saying, "Timothy has an infectious smile and good will that makes those who come in contact with him better for it. He has demonstrated discipline, initiative, leadership and commitment in the classroom and on the ball field. It is these qualities that have made him into the dynamic student athlete he is today. Tim will leave Chelmsford High School having constructed a legacy of scholarship, personal integrity and leadership that will not be forgotten."

I am sure you join me in wishing Tim Doherty the best of luck as he continues his educational and athletic careers at Merrimack College. He is a true student athlete, one that Chelmsford High School is proud to call its own. 🍀

CLASS ACTS, ONE AND ALL

Sure, it poured cats and dogs outside at the 20th Annual Chelmsford High Alumni Association Hall of Fame induction. But inside, nothing could dampen the flame burning brightly for this latest parade of honorees from CHS at the Radisson Hotel in Nashua, N.H., on March 13.

The induction of nine new members brought the number to 180 honorees in all since the Hall of Fame was begun two decades ago, and this year's installment proved to be a group of class acts – both literally, and figuratively – with most having some or extensive experience as educators in one form or another. From retired CHS Principal, Dean and English teacher Stephen Meidell to Math Coordinator Donna Upton Foley, the 2010 troupe of Hall of Famers goes to the head of the class in more way than one.

In his welcoming remarks, CHS Alumni Association President Terry McSheehy noted that this year's inductees spanned from classes ranging from 1966 to 1982. He also thanked the administration, the Chelmsford Rotary Club and the Chelmsford Boosters Club for its support of the organization and CHS and its students in particular. He proudly noted that this publication is sent to members three times a year and that the association has given out more than $325,000 in annual scholarships to deserving grads and that its endowment fund is over the $1 million mark. First-year CHS Principal Anne O'Bryant tipped her cap to association Executive Director George Simonian, Meidell and many other assembled CHS educators past and present when she said, "This is what's exciting about being part of CHS. These individuals for me were mentors."

"It's quite an honor," said Foley (Class of 1970), at a pre-ceremony reception, where inductees and special guests noshed on fruit, cheese and crackers and wine. "When you're a kid you never think it's going to happen, but I've been part of the Chelmsford schools for the past 48 years," she said, proudly adding that her mom, Dorothy Nystrom Upton, was CHS valedictorian in 1947.

Foley also noted the circle-of-life feel to her CHS experiences during her public remarks, noting that history teacher Mike O'Keefe, one of her former students, has since coached her nephew at CHS. Foley, a Tyngsboro resident, has coached youth soccer in her town and served on numerous educational committees. The former CHS Pep Club member also shared her comic side by wishing everyone a happy "pie day," as the following day was 3/14 (3.14), unable to resist the urge to include a little math in her presentation.

school." In what was perhaps the most emotional induction speech of the night, McAdam said that if "anyone belonged in the CHS Hall of Fame," it was his mother, Dolores, who worked in the superintendent's office for many years and became a "real fixture" in the schools. Wiping moist eyes, he also said his late father, Robert, would be "looking down with pride tonight."

ANGIE TARANTO & DON BOUCHER

Another honoree, Dr. Stuart Weisfeldt, 82, though not an educator, per se, was feted as this year's recipient of the Lucy Simonian Golden Lion Award for his years of coaching everything from softball to swimming, and for his service to a host of committees at CHS. At the same pre-ceremony reception, he said, "it was very exciting to be involved with CHS." Weisfeldt, an obstetrician by profession, was on former CHS Principal Simonian's Parent Advisory Council when it gave birth to the idea of the Post-Prom all-night breakfast designed to keep CHS students safe in the often dangerous hours following the last dance.

On a lighter note, McAdam wanted to know, "Why the hell do I look so old, and why does George Simonian look exactly the same way he did 33 years ago?"

McAdam thanked association Vice President Robert Pariseau for nominating him and also acknowledged three other Hall of Famers and noted sportswriters: Chaz Scoggins, Karen Guregian and Gerry Callahan who, like himself, make CHS a "cradle of sportswriters," if you will." He also thanked his teachers who "taught me how to think and how to think for myself."

SEAN MCADAM & BOB PARISEAU

One of my classmates from the Class of 1977, Sean McAdam, also a fellow journalist, was inducted for his contributions to sports writing and commentary. The former longtime sportswriter for the Providence Journal these days is a Littleton resident and reporter/commentator for the Comcast Sports Network.

Bruce Costa, an inductee from the Class of '75, earned his Hall of Fame wings for becoming an accomplished Navy helicopter test pilot and a Ph.D. in philosophy in business administration. The former Science Club member recounted his graduation night: June 7, 1975, when Celtics legend Satch Sanders was the main speaker. But what resonated with him even more than Sanders' "great" speech, was something George Ripsom, at the time a School Committee member, said: "I challenge you to fail." No one had said that to him before. "It stuck with me." Auto-rotation and safely landing helicopters gives one "good opportunity to fail every day." But

MARK MAYBURY '82 & DONNA UPTON FOLEY

"It's a tremendous honor," he told me before his induction. "My family has spent so much time in Chelmsford. It seems there's always been some connection to the

HALL OF FAME Review 2010

Costa noted the strength of such challenges allows one to grow and “go out and make the best (of life) that you can.”

Michael “Doc” Economakos, longtime athletic trainer at CHS, was credited by Simonian with starting the student training program in the Merrimack Valley Conference. The program became a springboard for many of them to pursue careers in the health professions. He called CHS his “second home.” He was effusive in his praise of Simonian and longtime Athletic Director Jack Fletcher, who always seems to find a way to finance things like the trainer’s room. He also thanked him for his “friendship” and the “comic relief” he provided on a regular basis. He also thanked his wife, Patricia, saying, “you’re beautiful, you’re intelligent and you’re my sunshine.”

Kathy Zemaitis Lamarre, Class of 1974, was inducted for her athletic prowess at CHS, her teaching and coaching at Westford Academy and her perseverance. While teaching freshmen during a Project Adventure session, she fell from a height of 25 feet and shattered both legs. Many operations and therapy sessions later, she not only got back on her feet but went on for her master’s degree in special education, which she now teaches at Nashoba Valley Technical High School. She called her induction “quite an honor.”

Margaret Marshall, Class of 1972, daughter of well-known community activists, the late Ed and Liz Marshall, was honored for a broad spectrum of work, including her volunteerism with the Chernobyl Children’s Project, serving as minister of music at at All Saints Episcopal Church and as Pelham, N.H.’s first library director. “Mom said democracy is not a spectator sport.” She thanked two women whom she called the “best role models,” former CHS librarian Betsy Bohl and Patricia Apostolakos Mahoney, her former English teacher. And in reference to the many agencies she’s volunteered for, Marshall said, “It’s better to give than receive. I will continue to look for meaningful volunteer opportunities.”

Wendy Marshall Fenner, Class of 1985, was a little late to the party, and with good reason. As head boys track coach at Doherty High School in Worcester, Marshall Fenner was coaching student Angelito Destin at the high school national championships at the Reggie Lewis Center in Roxbury. He finished 12th in the nation in the high jump at 6-feet, 4.25 inches. She knows a thing or two about records, having set the CHS record in the 50-yard, 300-yard and 220-yard dashes, to name a few. The indoor and outdoor track star was also a New England champion. She thanked longtime track coach Jack Lang, who attended her induction ceremony, and Economakos, for putting up with her non-stop talking. “When I refer to him (even today) as Mr. Lang, he said, ‘call me Jack. You’re making me feel old.’ ... If the spikes fit,” she joked. She also paid tribute to her brothers, who “came to most of my meets.”

Steve Meidell thanked and named far too many people to include in this space, but among them were his many former students and colleagues. “I grew in my role as principal” from watching George Simonian, he said. “And I left CHS knowing it was in good hands,” lauding his successor Al Thomas. “Deans (Bernie) Battle, (Jeff) Doherty, and Thomas were not only gifted teachers. They were the brothers I never had.”

To his four kids, all of whom graduated from CHS, he said, “I’m so proud to be your father,” and he called his wife Fran, an educator in the Lowell schools, “the wind beneath my wings. CHS has been a major part of my life, and you were all there for me.”

Richard Siebert, Class of 1966, has been a busy boy since high school, becoming a Massachusetts State Police trooper, winning its top award, “The Bulldog” in 1981 for charity work on behalf of Children’s Hospital, becoming a church deacon, not to mention serving a four-year stint in the Navy. In his speech, Siebert acknowledged that he “wasn’t the best student,” and sometimes “needed a lot of nudging. I was what I was.” He credits his class: the “66ers,” for their longstanding friendship. When in 2006 he battled laryngeal cancer, “they were there for me.” “Life is a journey, and I’ve had one hell of a ride.”

Getting back into his state trooper mode, Siebert concluded by saying, “They say a friend is someone who will bail you out of jail. A true friend is someone who will fight in a jail cell with you and say, ‘wow, that was fun,’” he said, prompting the room to erupt in laughter. &

Class of 1951 News

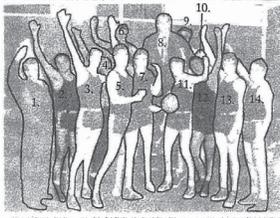

We were so proud of our 1951 Basketball Team who won the Class C. Title back in 1951. It was fun to try to name the people, and a combined effort of David Merrill, George Shepherd and myself we came up with all but one. The one we couldn't name didn't appear to have a uniform on – Could it be that it wasn't a team member?

As to where they are now, David Merrill is in Nevada, Dick Davis is in Pepperell, MA., Unfortunately, Milton Taylor and Bob Carruthers have passed. That's the best we can do on the where part! Maybe if you print this they will contact me and we'll find out where they are and what's happening in their lives.

CHELMSFORD WINS TITLE

Chelmsford Wins Third 1951 Title

Murray Hicks' Chelmsford high school hoop team added the Tech Tournament Class C title to its list, last night, defeating Provincetown 57-56 in the Boston Garden. It was the third 1951 title for the Hicks' charges who had previously won the Suburban and Class A Townsend championships.

Bob Carruthers, Junior Outstanding Player in the 1948 LOWELL SUNDAY TELEGRAM-Lowell Boys Club tournament, paced the Chelmsford club to victory with 27 points. Carruthers tallied 11 field goals and five fouls to amass his total. The 27 points in the final game gave Carruthers a total of 63 for the three games Chelmsford played in the tournament. He tallied 20 in the first game and 16 last Friday afternoon. Carruthers was also selected on the Class C All Star team.

Chelmsford trailed throughout the first half of the game. Hicks' boys were behind 22-19 at the end of the first period and trailed by five points 32-27 at the end of the first half. The local club got rolling in the third quarter and overcame the Provincetown lead.

Life here at Murrells Inlet, South Carolina, is flowing along smoothly. Here it is, May 7, 2010, the last day for this article to be submitted. While dining out this evening with my son and daughter-in-law, Bob and Barbara Kimball Mackey, I wondered out loud when the deadline was for submitting articles and, when we arrived home, Barbara consulted the calendar and told me that it was today! OK, I searched for material and found none - as usual. Of course, there are many reasons why that is so and I'll leave it to you to guess what they are. The last list of living classmates' names and addresses is dated Sept. 2004 and the following is the list of names. Please check them and if you have any pertinent information regarding them, write me at my address above, or my e-mail address, and tell me what info you have so that I may include it in the next issue of Lion's Pride. I have a feeling that some of them have left us already.

Here is the list:

Esther Angus Hanson, Loretta Archibald Murphy, Donald Bachelder, Charlton Boyd (I have his address), Rachel Burns Skauen, John Calder, Thelma Corr Williams, Helen Fadden Woodward, Hope Fielding Lawrence, Lorraine Forgays Miller, Edgar George (I have his address), Barbara Goodwin Hill, Althea Gorham Stolpner, William Hill (I have his address), Dr. Archie Hulick, Frances Kelly Wade, Eugenia Kisley Kane, Dorothy LeClair Mackey (that's me!), Pauline Lundberg Breen, Shirley MacLean George (I have her address),

CLASS OF 1937 - EASTER 2010

Dot Mackey, Class of 1937, with son, Bob Mackey, Class of 1963, send greetings to you from Murrells Inlet, S.C

Gertrude McNulty Marcoux,
Richard Pearson, Millis Pelton, Gena
Pettazoni Caliri, Nedra Sleeper
Mears, Frank Woodhead, Norman
Wright, Stephanie Zabierek Allen.

It's possible that I've made a number of mistakes here and you can help me by checking this list and telling me what you know of our classmates. I would appreciate it very much if you would help to bring me up-to-date regarding our classmates. Tell me if you know whether or not they are living and give me their last address if you know it. As many of you know, old age is pursuing me and I doubt if you'll find a Class Agent to replace me and I'd like to leave my records as up-to-date as possible.

I was very fortunate to have been invited to live with my son and daughter-in-law here in S C. Our kitchen overlooks a large pond and I'm entertained each day by the water fowl there. Each Wednesday I attend the Knit & Crochet Club at our Clubhouse, and once a month I attend the Book Club meeting where we discuss the book of the month that we have read. Bob and Barbara take me out to Sunday breakfast every week. Although I am on a walker, that is one invitation I don't refuse. I welcome hearing from anyone who would like to e-mail me.

Affectionately to my classmates, Dot

Greetings to you all - Once again I have received my edition of the Summer Edition of the "Lion's Pride" - Also once again I find no information of any of those living members of the Class of 1940 - come on!! Those of us remaining must have some news to pass on to the alumni magazine of the wonderful High school of Chelmsford, Mass - really the greatest high school in the universe!! I know I wasted many an hour there but I'm really probably the proudest member of any who have graduated from this great school. The teachers we had there at the time of my four years there were C. Edith McCarthy, Emil Gauthier, Miss F. Christine Booth, Mr. Watts, Mrs. Daisy McBrayne to name a few, along with Mr. Burns our Principal. And did we toe the mark? We have no one to blame if we did not succeed but ourselves!

For myself I have really had a wonderful life - I am now 87 years young and have just returned from a trip to Portland, OR with my son, Jack, now retired as a Nuclear Engineer with Consumers Power in Jackson, MI to bring his son back to finish his fourth year at Notre Dame. Mike left Notre Dame after his third year with a band, hoping to be successful out on the West Coast. They lasted about a year and then folded. When Mike graduates, he will be the seventh member of my family to graduate from Notre Dame. Jack and his four sons graduated from there and Joan, my youngest daughter graduated from there along with her husband George and their daughter Rebecca, who is now connected with a company in Zurich, Switzerland dealing with the hungry of the world. My grandson Brian is the head of the Activities Department at Notre Dame and also is writing for ESPN.

I am now 87 years of age and was married to Monica Kelly from Forge Village, MA for 60 wonderful years. After retiring, we spent 21 years in Bradenton, FL where I really became a fairly good golfer, carrying a handicap of 12. We moved to Mishawaka, IN three years ago and Monica became very ill and passed on to her heaven last August 29. I now occupy myself by going to a duplicate bridge club two days a week, having season tickets to the Notre Dame girls basketball games (WOW!! Keep your eye on them this coming year), enjoying the TV and the computer. I'm writing a book of "My Life" (I have about 150 pages completed) and also watch my Grandson George III play goalie for the Marion High School Team.

Come on Class of 1940 - give me some news!!! - John Fremeau

Spring is here and for the next three weeks I'll be helping out at the Old Chelmsford Garrison House at their "Out of Town" School Program. I show the children how to make soap.

I've been volunteering at the School Program for 39 years.

I met Bob Abrahamson ('41) and his wife Joyce (Bellwood) Abrahamson ('46) for lunch a couple of weeks ago. It was very enjoyable.

I just got back from Ft. Knox, KY where my grandson Sgt. Scott Gilchrist, son of Martha (Partridge) Gilchrist ('65), is stationed. I went with my daughter Martha to see my latest great grandson Kade Gilchrist, age 15 months. Kade has an older brother Logan age 2 years and 3 months. It was a great visit.

I talked with Rachel Vondal, sister in law of Luenna (Vondal) Bergin ('41). Luenna has had a very interesting and busy life. She served with MASH units in the Korean War. She donated her Cadet Nurses Uniform for a nurses' display in Washington, D.C. She has gone to South America as a missionary with her church. Luena has 5 children and several grandchildren.

Eileen (Greenwood) Fletcher ('41) is in Blaire House in Tewksbury.

Hope you all have a wonderful summer, Mary

Dear classmates of 1945,
Since volunteering as class agent, I find that the job is a snap. I have heard from Denise and Louis Croft who are alive and well, retired, computer literate, and living in the home Louis built in Hubbardston, MA. They have two daughters and four grandsons. So at least I know that Louis and I are still standing and hopefully not the last ones.

I had signed into an Internet website "classmates.com" and today they tempted me by claiming that nine members of the class of 1945 have signed my guest book and a total of 33 from CHS are signed onto my book. Hope to hear from the nine of you who are on the web at classmates.com. Classmates.com has just recently promoted a "gold membership" which basically costs five dollars per month less if you prepay for one or two years. I have now opted out. I did observe numerous familiar names: Terissa Mercia, James Gagnon, Doug Peterson, Stu Ross, Barbara Jones, Winslow George, and Earl Nickerson just to name a few.

Last year I spoke with Eleanor (McGlinchey) Roth '46 by phone. She and her husband Dick are still in Dracut living in the house they bought in the early 50s. Her sister Lorraine is living in Florida.

Last year has been great. I have three more great-grandchildren which make a total of eight, three boys and five girls. Last month I had a repair job on my heart in the form of a stent to eliminate a partial artery blockage. Very successful, worked like a charm - preempted a potential major heart attack.

Last week I need an updated birth certificate. FYI, I called Boston vitals where it costs anywhere from $37.50 up to $50. Then I called Chelmsford town clerk (office in our old high school at 50 Billerica Rd.) and it's only $10.

Last October we celebrated my brother Gilbert's 80th birthday at his son Curtis's home in Lompoc, CA. Gil was a member of the CHS class of 47 but ended up graduating from Lowell in 1947.

By the way I have a picture of the graduation of the class of 1917, which my nephew Chris Stevens had published in the Lion's Pride a couple of years ago. This was the last class to graduate from the North Chelmsford high school on Princeton Boulevard. There were 13 graduates, two boys and 11 girls. In the picture are my dad and Alonzo Russell (father of Muriel and Shirley Russell), also Ruby Amory who I remember being class agent (I think). Call me if you had an ancestor in this class and I can verify and send you a copy.

As ever and with all best wishes,
Mert Stevens.

Our sympathy is extended to the family of Paul Dumont who passed on March 13, 2010 in Dracut. Paul was the owner of Dracut Hardware in the Collinsville section of Dracut.

It was nice to chat with Theresa (Vennard) McCaul. Regardless of her health issues she continues to be upbeat and enjoys life and her family each day.

We just returned from a road trip to Ft. Sill, OK where our grandson, Karl Metz, graduated from Basic Training. It was a blessing; four generations to travel together for that distance. Our 2 great grandsons are great little travelers at 2 1/2 years and 5 weeks old. - George Spring has finally come to the mountains of West Virginia! It is so nice to look outside and see something other than snow. We had an accumulation of almost 20 feet from mid-October to late March. Our plowmen had to call in a front-end loader to open our driveway four times! We left for Florida just before the last big storm. We visited my brother, John '63 and his wife Bonnie and our son Jeff and his wife Judy who live near Tampa. It was wonderful seeing trees leafing out and azaleas in bloom. When we returned we still had some snow but it finally melted away by mid-April. We decided to spend next winter in Florida! I think we've seen enough snow!

Betty Hardy Jones and husband Bob, also headed south from the Cape. They visited their daughter and her husband near Ocala, FL, then went on to Ft. Myers. I called Katie Blott O'Neill to extend condolences to her and her family on the passing of her husband Francis in November. Peggy is looking forward to the wedding of her youngest son who will be married in June.

Victor Gaudette had called from Box Elder, SD to say how proud he is of his niece Kathy Zemaitis Lemarre '74 who was recently inducted into the CHSAA Hall of Fame. Kathy was a star athlete at CHS and went on to be a physical education teacher and a coach. Victor and his wife Jean walk 2 miles every day. He is still a Patriots and Red Sox fan.

When she is at home in Missouri, Doris Staveley Buzzell enjoys her flower garden. She also cuts her own lawn and prunes her trees! Dory is looking forward to a trip with Elderhostel to Mount Rushmore and Yellowstone in June.

Elizabeth Gannon Connolly is another traveling classmate. Liz went with friends to Ireland soon after our class reunion. She has been several times and always enjoys it.

Welcome to new CHSAA members Evelyn Petersen and Barbara Barrows Sevigny. It was great to see them our 60th reunion as well as all our other classmates who were able to attend.

It would be great to hear from more of our classmates. Send your news by email or snail mail. Tell us about your travels, new grand or great-grandchildren, special interests, or just say "hi". We'd really like to stay connected.

Till next time stay healthy and happy! - Skip

We were so proud of our 1951 basketball team which won the class C title back in 1951. It was fun to try to name the people, and through the combined effort of David Merrill, George Shepherd, and me we came up with the names of all but one. The one we couldn't name didn't appear to have a uniform on - could it be that he wasn't a team member?

As to where they are now, David Merrill is in Nevada, Dick Davis is in Pepperell, MA, and unfortunately Milton Taylor and Bob Carruthers have passed away. That's the best we can do on the where part! Hello again. I hope everyone is as anxious as I am about this winter being over and looking forward to warmer weather coming our way.

Last February I heard from Helen (Logan) Stewart from Florida. She was writing to tell me that she and her husband Stewie went on a cruise to the Caribbean to celebrate their 52nd wedding anniversary. The first night on the ship, they shared a table at dinner with two couples from Canada and three ladies from the east coast of Florida traveling by themselves. One of those ladies was Beverly (Lydon) Peyser, CHS '53, from Sarasota, FL! They were from the same high school and at the same table - pretty amazing on a ship with 3000 passengers on board. Another day while at sea, they had time to visit together and talk about old times at CHS. They had a fun catching up. It seems that no matter where you go you always meet someone that you either know or someone in the family knows. Small world isn't it???? Enjoy the pictures of Helen and Beverly. Oh, by the way, congratulations to Helen and Stewie on their 52nd anniversary and to George and Elaine (Avila) McClarity who recently celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with their daughter Stacey and her husband and family. Congratulations to all and we wish you many, many more!!! Elaine is taking care of her mom Elsie who is living with them in Palatine, IL. Marie (LaHaise) Duncklee '55, Elaine's cousin called me today from Florida to give me the news. It's always nice to hear good news for a change. At our age, we often tend to hear a lot of sad news.

Speaking of sad news; we have lost another classmate of ours: John J. Flynn, who passed away on April 11, 2010. He was a member of the CHSAA Hall of Fame. In his long career he served his country and community as a teacher, an advocate, a philosopher, and an attorney. In 1987, he was honored by the University of Utah with its highest honor, the prestigious Rosenblatt Prize for Excellence. He is survived by his wife Sheila and their three children.

Continuing with sad news; it was in the paper today, March 3, 2010, that Franklin J. Prescott has passed away. He and his wife, Bettyann lived in Westford, MA and would have celebrated their 52nd wedding anniversary on May 30, 2010. Franklin was a veteran of the Korean War, a firefighter, a construction worker, and a guard at MCI - Concord. He was also very active in the Elks, the VFW, and the Franco-American club. Besides his wife Bettyann, he is survived by two sons, Franklin and Frederick and their families, and a brother Robert and sister Joan Blowney and their families. He was also the father of David B. Prescott and brother to William Prescott both of whom predeceased him. Our deepest sympathy to Bettyann and the whole family.

On Saturday night, March 13, 2010, the CHS alumni Association had its 20th annual Hall of Fame induction dinner at the Radisson Hotel in Nashua, NH. Once again, this evening was a great success. Nine CHS graduates and staff were honored for their accomplishments and significant contributions to CHS, their communities, their professions, and/or in other areas as well. Hall of Fame inductees may be outstanding scholars, leaders, and/or athletes. They also may be administrators, teachers, or coaches who have gone above and beyond in their dedication to CHS and their students.

I worked with Sean McAdam's mother, Dolores at Chelmsford High School for many years; she was the Registrar and secretary to the director of guidance. She was so proud seeing her son being inducted into the Hall of Fame. It was a great night; I got to see many teachers and friends that I worked with during my 35 years with the school department. Ms. Millie Hehir came with me; she was inducted in 1992 and she always likes to attend this wonderful event. She had a great time and is looking forward to next year's event.

Shirley (Dorsey) McCaffrey, Joy (Larkin) Enis, and I went to visit Pat (Rioux) Ralls last week. Pat and Fran came home from Florida early so Pat could have a medical procedure done - "keep getting stronger, Pat; we've got to keep going". Also talked to Lil (Lebrun) Morrow this week; she recently had surgery and is coming along. A speedy recovery, Lil, and our prayers are with you also.

Well this is all for now, everyone stay healthy and happy. - Claire Summer's best celebrations! Always fun to have barbecues with family and friends to celebrating our country's independence, planning vacations, day trips to the beach or mountains. September will soon be here for our gathering of mates for a 55th reunion. If you have not received your invitation please contact one of us. For mates out of town, if you have not made your travel plans and/or reservations for your night stay for "Coming Back to Your Roots" do so, it is never too early.

Our heartfelt and deepest sympathy to Ann Dale Davis of North Chelmsford and her family for the loss of her husband Roger Davis. Roger unexpectedly passed away at a wedding on October 3, 2009. Ann's son and family were with him. Roger just dropped his head and went to heaven. The memorial service was held at the North Chelmsford Congregational Church, standing room only. Ann held a reception at the Princeton Station after the service. The interment, with full military honors, was held on a later date in Carlisle, MA with only the family attending.

School mates reunite --

We did it again! We had a fantastic time at our fifth annual Florida reunion on February 19th; we embarked in Sanford, Florida onto the "Rivership Romance" for a three-hour luncheon cruise. We cruised out of Lake Monroe, heading north up the St. Johns River. After arriving on a cold, sunny morning, the day turned out to be beautiful. We don't have snow but we have had our share of cold weather. Not fun if you're on vacation. Seen reminiscing and enjoying their lunch were Bob White '50, and his wife Charlotte Dinnigan White '51 from Lady Lake, FL, all the White sisters, Barbara Costello '56, from Port Orange, FL, and Marjorie Peterson '47, from Anaheim, CA, and Marcia Keim '54, of Tucson, AZ who were both visiting Barbara for a week. Also enjoying the festivities were Chuck and Joan McCarthy of Davenport, FL, Betty Lee Ann Morrison Butler of Ellenton, FL and her companion Dwayne, Ron Taylor and Judy Harrington Leary '60 from Chelmsford and Nashua, NH respectively, Chuck and myself. Such warm, fuzzy feelings, when seeing everyone.

Out and about --

Congratulations to Linda Patton for her three month long solo trip around the country. Before leaving on her trip, she first began the year 2009 at a New Year's Eve campout of the Central Florida chapter of the Florida Trail Association, held in the Ocala National Forest. Then she left home, Tallahassee FL, on May 18th on an exciting 78 day road trip to visit her son Greg and grandson Colin in Portland OR. Linda wanted to see the National Parks of the West. She drove 14,000 miles and saw mountains, dunes, and red rock canyons of the 21 National Parks, Monuments, Forests, and Recreation Areas in Colorado, Utah, Arizona, California, Oregon, Washington, Montana, Wyoming, and South Dakota - and slept one night in the teepee! Linda also spent some wonderful days with friends and relatives along the way, in Kansas, Indiana, Ohio, Tennessee, and Georgia before arriving back home on August 3rd to review all 3000 photos from the trip. In September, Linda was back on the road again for a long weekend up on the Blue Ridge Parkway to attend a hiker friend's wedding at Doughton Park Resort in North Carolina. In October, Linda drove up to Gettysburg, Pennsylvania to attend a gathering of the Appalachian Long Distance Hikers Association (ALD HA). Her daughter Mina and son-in-law Bob Roller are still in Tallahassee. Linda's other grandson, Morgan, graduated from Flagler College. When I talked to her in March she was getting ready with her local chapter of the Florida Trail Association for a weeklong maintenance trip to the Appalachian National Forest. "Busy lady!"

In October Eileen Harrington Collomb of St. Augustine, FL spent five weeks in Wellington, CO to help her daughter Reene with her new grandson Owen and Cooper III, now three years old. Eileen is still very busy with her volunteer work at church, president of her homeowners association, and getting ready for a golf tournament at St. Augustine Shores golf club. She had a visit in February from her brother Bob Harrington '62 and his wife Linda from Oregon.

You never know who you'll run into at a Red Sox game in Fort Myers, FL. This past March, Dan Pushee and his companion Bonnie of Crystal River, FL drove down to Fort Myers to attend a Red Sox game. This is where they bumped into Joe '54 and Carol Marcotte of West Chelmsford and Fort Myers, and Roy '53 and Mary Zabierek of North Fort Myers. They told Dan they would like to join us in our Florida reunion in 2011, and yes we will give them a call. If there is anyone out there who would also like to join us, give one of us a call.

Around and about - -

This past February, Ron Taylor and Judy Leary left Chelmsford for their monthlong vacation on Siesta Key on the west coast of Florida. On the drive south they made their first stop in Virginia, and then drove on to Asheville, NC for the "royal treatment" at the famous Biltmore estate. This is a place that sweeps you far away. It is the Vanderbilts' stately 250 room chateau filled with art and antiques, with acres of vibrant gardens.

After their grand time they drove down to Atlanta to visit with Ron's son Ron and two grandchildren Emily and Wesley Gladstone Taylor. Then it was onto Disney for a couple of days before arriving at Siesta Key. We were all very happy to have Ron and Judy join us for our fifth Florida reunion. On their way back to Chelmsford they spent some time in Vero Beach on the east coast of Florida.

Congratulations to Chris and Dottie Tassios Zahos on their 50th wedding anniversary February 7th. They celebrated with their daughter Diane Zahos Eastwood '81, her husband Scott Eastwood '82, granddaughter Merissa and grandson James at Gibbet Hill Farm in Groton MA.

Paul and Eileen Cummings '56 Peterson had a grand, cool month's vacation at Fort Myers Beach, FL this past winter. Paul's brother Douglas '47 of Corona, CA joined them for a week. While there, they took a drive to Sanibel and Captiva Islands. Paul found a true New England "clambake" in a restaurant in Fort Myers Beach. The menu included New England lobster (not Florida) steamers, and fried clams, just to name a few items. Paul and Eileen also took in two Red Sox games.

Had a nice long "phone visit" with Gertrude Smith Allaby of the 3rd of April. She and her husband Douglas are very happy to be back in their old Lowell Highlands neighborhood along with their new rescue dog Katie. Gertrude said it is hard to believe they will be married 55 years on July 2nd. Their pride and joy are their two great-grandchildren, Austin seven months and Jacob seven years old. They have three granddaughters, and three grandsons, ranging in age from 18 years to 27 years old. Their son Bruce lives in the Tyler Park area of the Highlands, daughter Kathy in Methuen, and son Butch in Dracut.

Dick and Priscilla Burt spent a nice Christmas with Dick's sister Carolyn '50 in Venice, FL. Their daughter Emily '87, came from Miami to join them for the celebration. Dick and Priscilla spent a wonderful week's vacation in Highlands Ranch, CO with their son Rick '91 and granddaughter Samantha. Rick is a major in the Colorado National Guard and recently spent time in Jordan.

This past February, Barney and Pat Elliott Bernard drove down to Disney with their granddaughter Evie, now 8 1/2, to spend a few cold days, then drove down to Bradenton, to visit with Barney's brother, and then drove to Naples for warm weather; none to be found! Said "OK", let's go home, and stopped for a night in Savannah, GA. Much to their surprise, it was warmer there so they spent three days and had a good rest before the long trip back to Chelmsford. Pat is still very active with her music group. She and Evie played at a nursing home at Christmas.

Talked to Larry Litchfield in March from Laconia, NH. Larry said the ice was going out on Lake Winnepesaukee. He and Patti were planning a day of skiing at Wildcat Mountain, north of North Conway, NH. He and his wife Patty spent two months in Augusta, GA this past winter with family. While in Augusta, they drove down to Sarasota, FL for a visit with his sister Debbie.

On March 27th, Bob and Carol Wetmore drove up to Ocala, FL from their winter home in Fort Lauderdale for a Wetmore clan reunion. Most of the Wetmores are from Florida. Hosting the event were Billy Wetmore and his wife Toni. They all met at Bill's home and then for the reunion, drove to an outdoor covered pavilion in Bill's community. There were lots of tears, hugs, food, and games, including horseshoes. Also attending were Bob's brother Ron '58, his wife Pat, and cousin Bill and Bill's brother Fred '60 and his wife Diane along with their families from Cedar Hill in the Nashville TN area.

Tid - Bits -

Earl and Bunny Guilmette spent Easter Sunday with all the Guilmette clan children and grandchildren. Everyone attended with the exception of the New York kids. Along with getting ready for their granddaughter Amanda's wedding in April, Tom and Barbara Bovill took time from their busy schedule to make a trip to Meredith, NH to visit with Butch '53 and Carol Abrahamson Bovill. Chuck and Joan McCarthy of Davenport, FL are doing well. Chuck, even though he is retired is still very active in his business. Dottie Zahos bumps into Ann Dale once in a while at the Senior Center in North Chelmsford. Lenny and Pauline Leedberg spent a cold January and February in Orange Beach, AL. They are now the proud owners of a new car with all the bells and whistles. Betty Morrison Butler will be enjoying her summer in Rockaway Beach in the Branson, MO area, enjoying visits with her son Mark and two grandchildren. Bill and Coppy Vennard of Columbia, MD are glad spring is here after shoveling snow from two back-to-back storms, "one snowflake at a time." Louis and Judy Fisher Chandonnet also are happy for an early spring. Tulips, daffodils, and forsythia are all in full bloom. On weekends they drive to Sago, ME from Hampstead, NH to ready their summer home. Judy talked to Mike and Prue Pouliot McBride of Cordova, TN. Judy said they are doing just fine and looking forward to our 55th reunion. Bob and Carol Wetmore had a nice working visit with their son Michael '82. Michael helped Bob put a new roof on their FL home. Bob says "what are sons for?!" They both took time off to take in a full day of golf.

We want to welcome Ann Dale Davis of North Chelmsford and Larry Litchfield of Laconia, NH as new members to the CHSAA.

Coming -- next issue -- fall edition
Carol French Miller and Gerry Greska's Hawaiian vacation, Dottie's trip along the West Coast, Tom's daughter's wedding, and Judy's Washington trip.

Till next time -- Happy Fourth of July and see ya at our 55th reunion on September 17 and 18th. Be happy, safe, and well! - Bob and Marie

The class of 1956 scholarship fund drive. We now have unofficial pledges from seven classmates for a total of $1400. Please, please take the time to send us your unofficial pledge.

This is a good way for our class to be remembered. Just think, years from now, when we are all gone, some future CHS grads will say "Thanks, Class of 1956 for thinking of us."

Setting up a scholarship requires raising at least $5000, as only the interest is awarded each year. The principal will not be touched.

Thank you to: Bob L., John M., Ed P., Eileen P., Mary S., Glen C., and Dick O., for responding. We hope to add your name(s) to this list! - Mary

AND Exciting news from Betty (Egerton) Wilder!!

Finally, I decided what I wanted to do when I grew up and after a few years of research, took this past year and a half to start doing it. My "first" novel - "The Spruce Gum Box" - is in the final stages before publishing. It should be released this summer. Could be it took 70++ years to put together the life experiences needed. By the next Lion's Pride I should have a better idea how it is going. I credit my daughter, Cheryl Wilder Krass ('82) for the final nudge. I have always loved writing and told her I have a story in my head I would like to try to get out. She told me if I did, she would see that it was published through her company, Alexemi Publishing. A year later I handed her the manuscript - historical fiction about the border struggle between Maine and New Brunswick, Canada in the early 1800's. I now know that the writing is the fun part - once that ends, the true work begins and she is guiding me through the steps. I'm sending a public thank you to her. My CHS pals have been supportive of my "I'm going to write a book" idea for years. This summer when Shirley Gould Ross and Priscilla Hoyt Ledwith and I meet in NH, we should have a lot to talk about. And I can't wait to hand a copy to my dear friend Marcia Ricker Brown ('57). It was such a thrill to first see the cover with Elizabeth Egerton Wilder in print.

Congratulation to our Class!!! We are the first class in the 1950's to offer a scholarship. I want to thank everyone who gave, helped, and worked so hard to accomplish this goal. George House, Beth (Simpson) McHugh, Gerry (Keddie) Flory, Sandy(Ricciardi) Kilburn and Joyce(DiRubbo) Ham, who did mailings, gave advice and were always involved from the start.

It was so nice to hear from so many people who sent notes along with their generous checks. In all there were 39 classmates who gave, anyone who would still like to participate can do so. We welcome more donations to help the scholarship grow. We had to have $5000 in order to start the scholarship fund, now we can add to it and give a more generous amount of money or even give an award to more than one student.

George Simonian told me the sky is the limit!

AWARD: The Class of 1957 Scholarship is awarded to a C.H.S. graduate who, two or more years after graduating, pursues a college bachelor's degree or an accredited program of studies.

FURTHER EXPLANATION: Most scholarships are given at one's secondary school graduation, but not everyone is ready for college at this time. This award is meant to offer encouragement to the applicant in their education endeavor.

I would love to hear from anyone who would like to have more info on this. Thank you to everyone again. - Kathy

Our sympathy to the family of Lianne (McMillan) LaMothe, our former classmate, who passed away in January. Lianne attended our 50th and truly enjoyed every minute of the three day reunion.

Connie (Grondine) Mullen traveled out to California from her home in Florida recently. Several of her sisters live there and gathered to help celebrate her oldest sister's 50th anniversary.

Jessie (Mckenzie) Moore and her husband Chuck have moved to a new home in Salem, NH. Kathy (Kulski)

Martin and her husband Bill enjoyed six weeks in Florida this winter, in spite of the colder temperatures this year. Ron and Lettie Aubrey were also there for a month or so.

Rich DeFreitas and his jazz group played Durgin Hall, UMass Lowell for a benefit for the people of Haiti. He also plays several times a month at a popular Greek restaurant. Beth (Simpson) McHugh and Berta (Jones) Erickson went to hear his group there and enjoyed the great music and food. If anyone is interested in getting a group together to go and hear them play, give me a call.

In late April, the '57 Luncheon Crew got together at Princeton station. It was fun to see everyone and catch up on all their news. Jessie (MacKenzie) Moore and her husband Chuck came from Salem, NH, Lillian (Gray) Roberts from Nashua, Gerry (Keddie) Flory from Ipswich, Ann Marie (Schlstedt) Winkowski and Dick Gauthier from Dunstable, Pat (Westwood) Marchand from Westford to join the Chelmsfordites Beth (Simpson) McHugh, Brenda Vinecombe, Gerry Robinson, Joyce (Dirubbo) Ham, Kathy (Kulski) Martin, Sandy (Ricciardi) and Wayne Kilburn. If you miss this luncheon, we'll probably be having another in late summer or early fall.

As you can read by Kathy's news, the goal for our '57 scholarship has been reached. My thanks to Kathy for all her efforts, it was a long 2 1/2 years to get to this point. To all of you who had good intentions and never contributed, it's never too late!

Please send me any and all news –
Till next time, Sandy

It's that time again and as I write this I'm sitting on my deck overlooking the Rose Garden at Chelmsford Village. Everything is either in bloom or ready to "pop"! The weather has been very weird and I count my blessings that I live in New England. We're really very fortunate – hopefully the weather patterns will not affect us too much.

I spent the month of March in Florida at "The Villages". Great place, although not so warm this year. My sister Kathy (1959) came with me and we had a wonderful time. My other two sisters Joan (1964) and Judy (1965) both live there. Kathy and I rented a villa.

While there I celebrated the big "70". WOW!!! As always, I had a great time but am always glad to come home. Hopefully the pictures I sent will make this edition.

I had an email from Roberta (Mortali) McGovern (1960). Unfortunately, I lost a lot of my emails. Sorry, Roberta. I was going to try to look you up in Florida. Please email me again and I promise I will respond. Roberta also lives in "The Villages".

One of our granddaughters, Brittany Flaherty is graduating from Hobart and William Smith Colleges in Geneva, NY. She is being inducted into the Phi Beta Kappa honor society. Brittany is also receiving a Fulbright Scholarship where she will be doing research at the University of British Columbia in Vancouver. Her goal, in part, is "to generate valuable information about the impact of land use and legislation on water quality and disease outbreaks. This will encourage protection of watersheds and demonstrate the need for increased cooperation between the U. S. and Canada." Last year she received the Morris Udall Scholarship. As you can imagine we are all very proud of Brittany. Her dad, Jim, and her aunts and uncles are CHS grads so Chelmsford must be doing something right!

Summer and the 4th of July will soon be here – love the parade and the common afterwards. My grandkids have a great time and love the water guns and the parade participants throwing out the candy and trinkets from the floats. It's always nice to see the CHS Alumni float and "Mr. Chelmsford" – AKA Mr. Simonian at the CHSAA booth.

Loved reading the poem that Miss Scoboria wrote. Nice to know that she is doing well. I hear from another former teacher, Mrs. Alberta Mooney. She was my 7th and 8th grade teacher and I have always loved and admired her. Things I learned from her I never forgot.

Please send me YOUR news – you must be bored reading only my news!!! Send me anything – love to hear from you!

Stay well and have fun. 'Til next time, Martha.

Hi! To the Classmates of 1959 - What a 50th reunion - "unforgettable." If you were unable to attend our unbelievable and well-represented reunion, we missed you. If you were able to attend, it was an unforgettable experience. The music, the photographer, the centerpieces, the hall, the food, the gifts, the maroon and white with 50's accents, all contributed to a fun-filled, memorable evening. But best of all were the classmates; it was such a pleasure to touch base with so many that we had not seen for such a long time, spanning 20 - 30 - 40 and even the full 50 years!

See the photos of our wonderful reunion on pages 26-29!

The classmates who traveled from Florida (4), California (3), Massachusetts (20), New Hampshire (8), Oregon (1), Connecticut (1), Vermont (3), Arizona (2), and Maine (1), were disappointed to find that many of our local classmates were unable to attend.

As a tribute to our departed classmates, a table was set up with a vase of 24 red roses and a framed listing of their names. Their names were read aloud before observing a moment of silence in memory: Fred Brow, Gerry Clark, Mike Curran, Sandy Elliott, Jack Emerson: Joe Falardeau, Dottie Harrison, Ginny Hutchinson, Jane Kaknes, Charlie Korsak, Pat Manahan, Don McDonough, Peggy McGlew, George Mentas, Neil Mooers, Peggy Murphy, Pat Paduch, Ira Parks, Jane Reeves, Ann St. Germain, Connie Stone, Roger Swallow, George Tassios, and George Turner.

During the evening, our photographer captured many fun moments in pictures taken in a cardboard cut out pink and white Chevy coupe. Copies of the CD of photos taken during the evening are available through Jim Donnelly, 19 Sagamore Trail, Littleton MA, payable to Jim's Photos for $25.

I especially would like to thank my outstanding and very special committee. I couldn't have done it without them - Barbie Popplewell Barrelle, Lois Giiffin Grenier and George Grenier, Georgi and Paul Mueller, Gayle and Henry McClean, Kathy Crane Lucier, Jackie Regan Parks, and Lois Gagnon Proverb and Jack Proverb.

After the presentation of class gifts, I was presented with a beautiful carriage clock and a dozen red roses for my 50 years of faithful service to the class of 1959.

The following letter embodies our feelings and our recent 50th class reunion:

To all classmates - Gail and I had a wonderful time this past weekend. It was great to see some people I hadn't seen since 1959. All in all our class has done well through the radical 60's, the political unrest of the 70's, and the "me too bunch" of the 80's. I'm still amazed at the attendance of the people who came from out of state, a tribute to the hard work and persistence of all. It was happy and sad saying goodbye at the end of the night as people left. But!!! The upside is that those who attended went away with pleasant memories of a reunion they won't forget anytime soon.

Again, thank you for making this an event I will long remember and cherish. Your classmate, Henry.

We hope to see you on our next reunion scheduled to be held sometime in 2014. - Ruthie

News from Ed Walker: I am happy to report that Kathy & I just returned from San Diego where we met our new grandson Brandon. Our son and daughter-in-law also have a 3 year old boy (Bryce). We are still enjoying life in The Villages in Florida.

Other news to report: I heard via the grapevine that Marylou Brule Landry is living in Vermont and loving it!

I was so happy to see Brad Perham and Judy McCarthy Olsson at the Hall of Fame banquet and both look great - maybe because they are enjoying retirement!

I was thrilled to hear from Maryeileen Callahan Haley. She lives relatively close to me as far as the state of Maine is concerned. She recently enjoyed a visit from Judy McCarthy Olsson, Connie Cullen Campbell, Judy Flanagan McPhee, Hilde Roymans Gilman and Marion Dupee Currier. They had a very special lunch and visit and Maryeileen said that their visit meant a lot to her. She has treasured their friendship and their unique and special bond that most don't have as they help each other through all the challenges that come with life. It's as though time stands still every time they meet.

Marilyn Slater Emerson spent the winter in North Carolina near her children, hoping to get away from the harsh New England winter. I think Mother Nature must have been playing a trick on her since the south got much more winter weather than we did. Merrie Shay Meckley was able to get up from Florida to visit with her.

Sally French Bourque and I recently celebrated our 65th birthdays by going to Memphis (to see Graceland, what else!), - and to Beale Street, then on to Nashville. We enjoyed seeing the Hermitage, Belle Meade, several other plantations and botanical gardens. Of course, we had to go to the Grand Ole Opry while we were there even though we aren't particularly country music fans. The weather was perfect and we enjoyed our visit.

I'd love to hear of news from any other classmates so please write or contact me. Happy summer! - Laura Happy spring Class of 1965!

I had a nudge from a classmate a while back. Cherrie (Nelson) Jason dropped me a few lines from Newmarket, NH. She wanted to know if all was well with me and how come no news had appeared in the Lion's Pride. I guess I am just too busy - time goes by too quickly sometimes!

Our Alumni Association had another great Hall of Fame induction ceremony. Bob Siebert's brother Rich '66 was inducted. It was good to see the many classmates from '66 cheering for "Sieb."

Now we're gearing up for another successful Alumni Association Awards Night ceremony. Lots of scholarships will be distributed to deserving CHS graduates.

Chuck Cormier's mother, Vi, just arrived in my shop for her hair appointment. Vi reports that Chuck is still working as principal at the elementary school in Hingham. His wife, Carol, says he won't retire because he thrives on his students' parents' admiration. Good for you Chuck!

Back to my letter from Cherrie; my reply to her: "you battled before and won - - - I'm sending prayers and good thoughts to you as you give a good fight to this new enemy, leukemia. You go again - - girl!"

few" catching up in April 2010. Remember when the 60's seemed like a light year away!

Hopefully nobody's home in New England floated away in the horrific rain storms. Our lawn still feels like a sponge!

It certainly was a crazy winter and early spring. Mark Transue in Las Vegas reported more snow than we had as well as unseasonably cold temps. He could probably compare to Ray Tuck up in Bethlehem, NH.

Some of us had the pleasure of attending the induction of Richard Siebert to the Alumni Association Hall of Fame in March. Richard was designated our inductee for the Hall of Fame through the classmates on our web site, Chelmsford High1966.com. Thank goodness he was accepted as there is quite a bit of paperwork etc.....but he is worth it! If you were not aware, Sieb (the funny guy with the guilty smile in high school,) did two tours of duty in Vietnam. He is a Massachusetts State Police Officer. Make sure you know the words and tune to Chelmsford High song.....you may make him smile and forget why he stopped you? Sieb also does many events to help those in need. He became a Deacon in the Catholic Church several years ago. Sieb is married to Claire who is as nice as he is and they have a wonderful family. They are expecting their first grandchild soon.

In March 2010 we lost one of our classmates to cancer. Don Barley, who resided in Rhode Island, fought valiantly against the cancer and his family supported him completely. His wife Nancy kept us informed. She graduated from Westford class of 1966. One of the best quotes I heard about Don was, "He was the little guy with the big heart." How nice to be remembered in that way. Many of us "speak" to Nancy on the web site.

John (Jack) Knox passed away February 23, 2010 of a massive heart attack. Jack was the lead singer for the Continentals who did many singing "gigs" in the area and Vegas. My special place to see/hear Jack sing was at Hampton Beach every Wednesday night. I always missed the fireworks because I was talking to Jack. What a voice that guy had! I know I am not the only one who will miss him....what a great following he had!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

NOTICE!

MEMBERSHIP DUES CHANGE

The CHSAA is changing the collection of the annual dues from the current format to a "once per year" renewal system.

Under the current system, members have different renewal dates for their dues (March, June, September or December). This system is somewhat confusing and requires numerous mailings and allows for potential accounting problems. Hopefully the new "once per year" system will eliminate confusion and convoluted logistics.

All annual dues will now be collected September 1st. Anyone who currently has a renew date of March, June or September will pay their annual dues September 1, 2010. If someone has a December renewal date he or she will renew his or her dues September 1, 2011.

Anyone with a 5-year membership will renew their dues on September 1st of the year in which their membership is to expire.

Thank you for your understanding during this time of change and hopefully improved service.

Sincerely, CHSAA Board of Directors
Terry McSheehy, President
