MORE THAN A NEW SCHOOL YEAR IS UNDERWAY AT CHELMSFORD HIGH SCHOOL. MAJOR CONSTRUCTION BEGAN AT THE END OF LAST SCHOOL YEAR ON A NEW ADDITION, CONSISTING MAINLY OF SCIENCE LABS AND A COVETED AUDITORIUM.

No longer will student thespians and musicians be bereft of a home of their own. They have merited their home the old-fashioned way; they've earned it. Productions have been on such a high scale as to merit professional evaluation. They've demonstrated what we can expect in new quarters. The space will be available this spring.

So far none of the perils of the "Big Dig" has plagued this project. Its construction seems to be on time and specifications are being met. The school year continues without interference. May we have a happy ending.

A funny thing happened at the CHSAA Annual Meeting of September 13th. For the first time in several years, about forty members attended. An accounting of the fiscal well-being of the Association was tendered. Success in many other projects was noted. The audience was astounded to learn that our endowment was nearing $1,000,000. Come again next year, and bring friends.

A Quo Vadis committee, consisting of CHS alumni, has issued both a mission statement and a vision statement. It's clear from these documents that the Association is not static, but looks to the future. Some of the materials may be viewed as the stuff of dreams. If so, members should be reminded that, without dreams, mankind would still be living in caves. ■

MISSION STATEMENT

The Chelmsford High School Alumni Association is an independent organization committed to promoting fellowship with and among alumni and future graduates. The Association, recognizing the rich legacy and the excellence in education of the Chelmsford Public Schools, is a committed partner with Chelmsford High School. The Association seeks to offer programs and services to Chelmsford High School alumni and to foster support for the Chelmsford High School community by promoting alumni interest, engaging alumni to contribute their expertise, encouraging alumni and community involvement in student programs and services, and providing social, business and charitable opportunities. ■

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Terry McSheehy

IT HAS BEEN ANOTHER WONDERFUL YEAR FOR THE CHSAA. WE HAVE HAD GREAT SUCCESSES WITH OUR HALL OF FAME INDUCTION DINNER AND OUR SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS NIGHT.

The Hall of Fame gained 9 new and wonderful members - individuals whom we should all be justifiably proud to have representing us. I am continually inspired by the breadth and depth of the accomplishments of individuals who are selected for membership in the Hall of Fame.

The Awards night was a wonderful evening and you should really try to attend to enjoy the spirit of giving back that comes from this evening.

The Fourth of July was another wonderful time. We had a good turn out, not as good as last year but that was due to the fact that the Fourth was part of a four day weekend and that made for a smaller than usual crowd. That aside, we had a chance to visit with many classmates and even managed to sign up a few new members at the same time. On that note membership continues to be a concern as we seem to be hovering in the high 1800s and can't move beyond. We gain new members all the time but also seem to lose members who do not renew their memberships. We are at a loss to explain this but it is a reality. Any feedback we can get as to why people are letting their memberships lapse would be greatly appreciated.

The website continues to prosper under Rob Russo's leadership, our only problem now is that the high school server was damaged by rain during the construction going on this year at the high school and will not have full capabilities back until probably the first of 2007, that means that our site will be intermittently available until that time. We are sorry for the inconvenience.

We have three new committees actively working on the future of the CHSAA; one is the Ad Hoc committee that is defining the methodology for the success of the CHSAA in the future. They have worked very hard and will continue to work hard until we have identified what needs to be done to assure the lasting existence of the CHSAA.

The Building Committee is defining the requirements of a building to house the Alumni Association. This includes office space, storage space for memorabilia, and an exhibition hall for display of the memorabilia and for the hosting of functions of the alumni association and possibly for class reunions.

The Land Committee is tasked with identifying a plot of land that would be appropriate for the CHSAA home and also for initiating the investigation into the availability of the land for our use.

One committee yet to be seated is the capital campaign committee which will have the arduous task of raising the funds to make all of the plans of the Ad Hoc, Building, and Land Committees a reality.

These are very ambitious goals and may take some time to complete but it is the intent of your leadership to see that they are accomplished. The success of the CHSAA depends on our achievement of these goals. ■

CHS ALUMNI ASSOCIATION VISION STATEMENT

VIETNAM VETERAN'S MEMORIAL

A small group of citizen's from Chelmsford, in conjunction with the Department of Veteran's Services, is raising money to install a Vietnam Veterans Memorial tribute. This memorial will be placed at the common in Vinal Square, North Chelmsford. The four Chelmsford soldiers who made the ultimate sacrifice will be honored on the memorial.

The four, all products of the Chelmsford school system, are:

John Francis Bettencourt
12/18/1946 – 11/16/1967

Kenneth Rockwell Hughes
07/09/1946 – 03/28/1969

09/09/1948 – 06/18/1969

James Alden Doughty
10/11/1948 – 08/28/1969

The Town of Chelmsford has been very gracious offering space and some administrative and engineering assistance. The current fiscal situation, however, does not allow for any monetary assistance.

This committee is asking for assistance funding this long overdue project. Please send donations to:

Chelmsford Vietnam Veterans Memorial

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Allen Thomas

THE 2006-2007 SCHOOL YEAR GOT OFF TO A GOOD START AT C.H.S. DESPITE A VARIETY OF CHALLENGES THAT RESULTED FROM THE CONSTRUCTION PROJECT AND THE DAMAGE TO OUR COMPUTER NETWORK OPERATION CENTER, WHICH WAS CAUSED BY THE NEGLIGENCE OF THE ROOFING COMPANY.

The first phase of work on our science classrooms has been completed and our students are enjoying those bright, new facilities. The rest of the science rooms will be completed later this year. In the mean time, some classes continue to meet in the portable classrooms next to the gym.

We have a new fire alarm system. Our heat and ventilation system has been upgraded. Much of the back parking lot has been sealed and painted. Work on a totally new roof is almost done. Progress on the new 1,000-seat auditorium is going well and will be completed in the late winter or early spring. Several groups are anxious to be the first to use that new facility.

Many of the computer functions have been restored, but some will not be fully repaired or replaced for some time. Perhaps the biggest communication problem has been the loss of our web site. Not only have we been unable to post information, but also people have not been able to access links to various related web sites. There is now a temporary web site which is a significant step in the right direction.

We have received word that the Class of 2007 has two National Merit Semi-Finalists and 12 Commended Students. The Commended Students are Harrison Chen and Nathaniel Ledwith. The Commended Students are Daimeng Chen, Meghan Cramer, Kara DeFreitas, Helen Ferreira, Alexander Grant, Abigail Jacobs, Qian (Lucy) Lin, Visala Satyam, Ariana Spawn, Alaina Spaziani, Brian Tang and Emily Zhao.

Other academic achievements are worthy of note. 49% of our Advanced Placement students scored a 4 or 5 on their exams last spring. 78% received a 3, 4 or 5. The MCAS results from last spring are also exciting. 84% of the students received scores at the Proficient or Advanced levels in English and 85% in Mathematics. Only 1% failed the English and 3% failed the Mathematics on this first try.

I am pleased to inform you that we have received notice of financial assistance from the Mobil Educational Alliance through the North Chelmsford Mobil Station and Target's "Take Charge of Education" program. We also received a generous donation from a concerned parent.

Funds such as these allow me to provide money to meet a variety of needs not addressed in the annual school budget.

I have already met with members of the P.T.O., the P.T.O. Liaison Committee, the Alumni Association's Board of Directors, the Faculty Senate and Principal's Advisory Board (students) to address questions and concerns. I have used the "Connect-Ed" telephone call system to communicate important messages. Communication with various segments of our community is very important to me. Feel free to call or to make an appointment with me whenever you feel it would be helpful. Most Sincerely, Allen Thomas. ■

TIM VENNARD

TIM VENNARD HAS A SELF-CONFIDENCE ABOUT HIMSELF THAT IS DISARMING. HE HAS ALWAYS WANTED TO BE PRESIDENT OF HIS SENIOR CLASS. AS THE TIME APPROACHED, HE BECAME MORE CONVINCED THAT IT WOULD BECOME A REALITY.

Classmates pointed to his leadership skills. They urged him to run. The rest is history.

President Vennard is excited as each senior event approaches. Raising money, particularly for a class trip, is always an objective. He is convinced that such a trip will reap untold benefits for the class. The Class of 2007 already has an impressive start in meeting the money goals.

Tim unabashedly describes his class as “the best in twenty years at CHS.” No adversity is too great for them to handle. They are “enthusiastic, participatory, and spirited.” The leader is bullish about his classmates.

Vennard is appreciative of good teachers, mentioning two as examples. Mr. Kamal in English is understanding, and has taught Tim “a lot.” Mr. Rubin in the language department is a “good guy.” Like all good teachers, they were dedicated, fair, and understanding. They were teachers first, and friends second.

Tim’s college aspirations are unusual and dramatic. He opts to enroll at the University of Nevada/Las Vegas. He has visited the school and come away more convinced of his choice. He intends to study criminal justice.

Adults neither understand nor appreciate the difficulties facing today’s high schoolers. They envision the young as carefree and happy, free from the problems adults face. In reality, teenagers face a great deal of pressure. There is pressure for good grades and for friends, only to mention two. The need for understanding between the age groups was never greater.

Asked for an immediate reaction to a number of issues, Tim obliges. He loves the Red Sox and is not disturbed by their late-year swoon. He likes television, but is not a fan of reality television. President Bush is doing a “good job.” The war in Iraq is many-sided and he’s not sure of his assessment of it at this stage.

Tim sees the biggest problems facing the country to be the war and global warming. While the war is much debated and causes much division, global warming is ignored or unrecognized as a problem by the current administration. Both problems will occupy center stage, no matter what resolutions are sought.

Queried as to whom he admires, Tim stays within the family. He admires his father, particularly for his work ethic and his responsibility to his family. No matter how he feels, he goes to work daily, a wonderful example for others. He admires his sister for her willingness to go away to college. She, too, is a role model for her brother.

Tim Vennard has a self-assurance about himself that is charming, and not arrogant. He is respectful and appreciative of those who have gone before him. As President of the Class of 2007, he eagerly anticipates each new task ahead. He has complete confidence with regards to his class and its capabilities. He seems headed for a successful year and a very promising future. ■

RUSS MANN

IT WAS AS IF IT WERE ALL ARRANGED ON CUE. FIRST, THE HAUNTING RUMBLE AND THEN THE PIERCING SNORT WHOSE SOUND NO HUMAN COULD REPLICATE. THE BUFFALO OF CUSTER STATE PARK IN SOUTH DAKOTA WERE LOOSENEED LIKE A RUNAWAY LOCOMOTIVE, WITH EVERYTHING IN ITS WAKE, VULNERABLE TO DESTRUCTION. WOE TO ANYONE OR ANYTHING IT WOULD ENCOUNTER.

Directly in the path of the rumbling menace was a lonely motorcyclist, temporarily resting from what was to be a twenty-six day, 8359-mile adventure, a trip from coast to coast and back again. Wisely, he chose not to panic, even though he and his machine seemed certain to be destroyed. Buffalo raced to the left and right, but one Bull Moose set his sights directly on him. Suddenly, without explanation, the monster planted his feet and stopped just twenty feet short of his target. Remaining calm in the face of destruction had saved the cyclist's life.

The driver-owner of the motorcycle was Russ Mann, Class of 1965. Whereas some locals would relieve their boredom by going to Kimball's for ice cream, taking in a movie, or visiting grandchildren, Russ chose to spend his summer on a more dramatic note. He would motor westerly until he crossed the fabled Golden Gate Bridge in San Francisco. The Orange Jewel finally became a reality.

What surprised Mann most about his sojourn was the kindness and generosity of the people he encountered and how the people were attracted to his motorcycle. Fellow cyclists and non-cyclists alike were piqued with curiosity and admiration of this vehicle. The kindness and generosity of these same people was gratifying. Russ has advice for those who would motor westward. Initially, "don't rush." Spend an extra day or more enjoying a particular site. Also, take measures to avoid dehydration. Temperatures can reach one-hundred degrees in various sectors of the country. There can be drastic changes in these temperatures. Wild animals can be a menace, on or off the highway. While such a trip may leave memories that last a lifetime, it should be taken with care and preparation.

Russ regrets most of his academic performance – or lack of it – in high school. He was not motivated to excel. Once he had left high school and experienced junior college preparation, he returned to academe and recorded honor roll grades at the University of Massachusetts.

Mann did not lack for favorite teachers while in high school. George Simonian was a particular favorite because he was "so animated." Others abounded. Don Boucher, Ed Quinn, Helen Poland, and Jack Sargent, to name a few. His parents had taught him that teachers were to be respected.

As a teacher at Nashoba Valley Technical High School in Westford, Russ sees an "absolute" difference between today's students and students of his day. While some remain respectful, others are not. They have no personal misgivings about their own behavior. They have no laments. It's others who are strange.

Russ was involved in a myriad of pursuits once he left high school. He attended Northeast Broadcasting School with visions of becoming a television personality. He worked at radio station WLLH. From there followed a four-year stint in the United States Air Force, a move to California and an eventual return to Chelmsford.

He describes Chelmsford as a once quiet, model small town that has lost this status. It has not been able to handle change to its advantage. Nature and the beauty of the landscape have given way in the interest of progress. Uncontrolled growth remains the biggest problem facing the town today and Russ sees no means of a process to control it.

Mann is unhesitant in proclaiming terrorism and immigration as the biggest problems facing the United

CHSAA ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Chelmsford High School Alumni Association was held in Dining Room 1 at the high school on September 13, 2006. Upwards of forty association members were in attendance. President Terry McSheehy presided over a meeting which gave an account to its members and reported on the past year's activities.

Nancy Hughes gave a report of the Nominating Committee. The report included the reappointment of current board members Robert Mackey, Terry McSheehy, Elisa Ouellette, and Robert Russo. President McSheehy then introduced members of the Board of Directors.

Treasurer Lisa Simonian Ouellette ('87) gave a detailed treasurer's report. Executive Director George Simonian offered a thorough report of CHSAA activities. Among those were the Lion's Pride, Scholarship Awards Night, CHS Alumni Authors section of the CHS library, Hall of Fame night, and the Association's endowment fund, soon to reach one million dollars. He urged member attendance at these events, and offered them as evidence of the alumni spirit of "giving back."

After the meeting adjournment, refreshments were served while members socialized. The opportunity was also given for members to view the extensive CHS Alumni Authors section in the library. ■

SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS NIGHT

Written by Hank Zabierek

Alumni President and Master of Ceremonies Terry McSheehy explained the ground rules. CHS Principal Al Thomas pronounced it a “night of celebration.” CHS Principal Emeritus and Executive Director of the CHS Alumni Association George Simonian sketched its history.

Thus was ushered in the CHSAA Eighth Annual Scholarship Awards Night of May 15 in the John T. Conrad Gymnasium at Chelmsford High School before a bleacher-full audience of proud parents, friends, admirers, and school leaders.

It was a night of winners. Recipients received awards because of their academic prowess, their service to the school and to others, their character, and their perseverance in the face of difficulty. Presentations were made to 2006 graduating seniors and previous graduates. Over $42,000 in monies was awarded, all in the spirit of giving back that characterizes the CHS Alumni Association.

Special thanks should be fostered on the Scholarship Committee for their long hours of making difficult decisions. Its members include Chairperson Mary Amirault ('85), Cynthia Dupee Gale ('66), Peter Hantzis ('69), Betsy Kehoe ('82), Robert Mackey ('63), William Martin ('75), Rebecca Warren ('79), and Principal Allen Thomas.

The Awards Night Committee deserves plaudits for its organizational skills and provision of refreshments. Their membership includes Chairperson Nancy Delmore Hughes ('65), Lynne Marshall McSheehy ('64), Robert Pariseau ('64), Cynthia Judge Sandholm ('69), Ann Swierzbin, and Nancy Williams.

RUSS MANN

States. Terrorism we appear to be fighting, but there seems to be no agreement where immigration is concerned. Rather than a multicultural society, we seemed to have a "tossed salad." We seem reluctant to face the issue squarely. It begs immediate attention.

Asked for his quick opinion on a disparate group of topics, Mann is forthcoming. "Wait 'til next year" is the best response for the Red Sox's demise. Donald Trump is "pompous," and the wonder is why. Dick Cheney looks like "Dr. Evil," but the judgments on his performance are mixed. "Letting teachers teach" would accomplish more than mandated state testing can.

Russ need not look to statesmen, authors, entertainers, or athletes for persons to admire. The answer is to be found closer to home. His parents were his best teachers, best friends, and best guidance. They taught children good values. They were always there. It is they who are to be admired.

Russell Mann has had a variety of life's experiences from which he was gained wisdom. He seeks remedies to problems, rather than despair over their irresolution. He believes in the young, never allowing the misbehavior of some to determine the nature of the many. He is a concerned citizen of his community. He is a worthy teacher of others. ■

ATHLETIC CORNER

All seven potential state tournament-qualifying teams this spring at CHS did qualify. These included baseball, boys' and girls' lacrosse, boys' and girls' tennis, and boys' volleyball. Four spring track members qualified for the National Track and Field Meet: Tim Eynatian, Josh Andrews, Michael Sweeney, and Chris Brown as the one-mile relay team, and Andrews in the 5000 meter run.

Fifty-two athletes were chosen as All-Star or All-Conference Athletes in the Merrimack Valley Conference. Fourteen were selected as Lowell All-Stars, and Greg Bailey was all-state champion in the 100 meter dash.

For the 2005-2006 year, these statistics are of interest. The girls' gymnastics team was State Champions. CHS had four Merrimack Valley champs: girls' volleyball, gymnastics, wrestling, and boys' swimming and diving. For the year, the sixty-six athletic teams fielded amassed a record of 245 wins, 153 losses, and nineteen ties. ■

I phoned Frank Woodhead to check how he was doing and he seems to be coming along fine, although he has a few of those problems that we in our

Since the temperature has dropped into the sixties, I believe it's telling us that we should prepare for the cold weather. I will hope for a call or e-mail from someone, anyone, in our class.

Mary writes:

I had a nice letter from Luenna Vondal Bergen. She was sorry to learn there would not be a class reunion. She said this year would be a memorable one for her. It would be sixty years since graduating from nurses' training. Also, it would be fifty years since serving in Korea and her 50th anniversary of graduating from college. She is still employed at her church two days a week and she volunteers another day. She has been on short-term mission trips to Chile and second trips to Thailand and Morocco. She lives between Tampa and Orlando and would love to have company if anyone is down that way. She lives in Valrico, Florida, and her phone number is 813-661-6087.

I also received a letter from Parker George. He was disappointed that our class reunion was cancelled. His daughter, Lynn ('72) visited him in May and they traveled to Pensacola to see his granddaughter get married on the beach there. He also saw his newest great grandchild. Her name is Lynn Bella George. He had a lot of company in August with more of his children. Parker lives in Port Orange, Florida. Great to hear FROM you, Parker!

I also heard from Natalie Johnson Semple. Eileen Greenwood Fletcher and I are meeting her for lunch next week. She will be going back to Lake Wales, Florida, in October. I haven't seen her for a few years.

I have five grandchildren. My oldest grandchild is the son of Martha Partridge Gilchrist ('65). He will be going to Iraq soon for the second time. He spent eleven months there in 2003 and 2004. He is Sergeant Scott A. Gilchrist. I became a great grandmother in February. Stella Simmons was born to my granddaughter, Stefanie Starratt ('96), the daughter of Mary Jane Partridge Starratt ('72). Stella was my first great grandchild and Mary Jane's first grandchild. The whole family is thrilled.

Sitting next to me was Martin Norton of your class. Earlier in life, Martin had been a bricklayer for many years, working on many important buildings. These days you might see him at our Senior Center as a volunteer working two days each week doing maintenance work. ## CLASS OF 1944 - POMPANNO, FLORIDA, MARCH 2006

"JEAN, BETTY, TERRY, AND PAULINE - "THE GIRLS!"

I received a note from Jean Kolesnikoff Hanagan in mid-June, to which she added a post-script saying, "It's only ninety-four today and humid - ugh!" The full text of her note, together with an enclosed photo, is as follows:

"Dear Ray - The enclosed is probably too late for the next issue of the Lion's Pride, but thought I'd send it along - so far behind with never-ending paperwork!

In the article you write, please mention that my "girlfriends," Betty, Terry, and Pauline, join me at the Royal Vista Timeshare in Pompano, Florida, every March and we have a great time. In July, I join them in Chelmsford.

I enjoyed Ernie's article in the Winter 2006 issue.

The full names of the girls are Jean Kolesnikoff Hanagan, Betty Messier Donovan, Terry Messier Beauregard, and Pauline Messier Carroll.

Hope all is well with you. Sincerely, Jean."

Thanks for the note, Jean! It's always great to hear from you. I really wish that more of our classmates would keep us posted with some of the happenings in their lives.

I was deeply saddened when I learned a couple of weeks ago that we have lost yet another member of our class. Alex Karafelis passed away on Tuesday, August 1st, following a sudden illness. Our condolences to his wife, Anita, and to the other members of his family.

Reporting the passing of one's classmate is never an easy task. Patsy Bacon Buckingham passed away July 4th. Patsy was a very accomplished person. She was a graduation speaker at the class graduation. She went on to become a successful business woman in construction and real estate. Besides her husband she is mourned by five children, eleven grandchildren, three great grandchildren, and numerous friends and relatives. She will be missed by her classmates of 1946.

Also, Warren Norton dropped me a note recently. He says, "Thanks for keeping me informed about our classmates. I appreciate it very much. I have had a few changes in my life the past several months. Had knee surgery on March 9th, and a heart attack on March 26th, followed by open heart surgery to repair five blockages. Happy to say I am doing better now in cardiac rehab. Have to watch my diet from now on. No more cheeseburgers. Hope all is well with you. Are there plans for a 60th reunion this year?"

We are saddened to report the passing of one of our classmates, Elmer G. Swanson, Jr., on June 16, 2006. He is survived by his wife, Virginia, and three sons, two daughters, two stepdaughters, and grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Betty Stewart Hamilton, who lives in Florida, was at her son Warren Price's home in North Chelmsford to attend her grandson's wedding and to make the beautiful wedding cakes. Her grandson is Richard Price ('97). His best man was Bill Marcotte, and one of the groomsmen was Brandon Kelly. Both men are Chelmsford High School graduates. His sister, Heather Price, was a bridesmaid and also graduated from CHS in 1995. Richard's mother, Cindy Price, has worked at the Harrington School in Chelmsford during the past nineteen years in Special Education. Betty went on a scuba diving adventure to Bermuda last July. She is planning another trip to Bonaire in December, and yet another trip back to Bermuda next July. The plan is to go with her son's family – kids and all. The biggest kid of the bunch is Betty herself.

Barbara Murphy Zemaitis flew to Washington to attend her grandson's graduation from Bellevue High School this past June. Her grandson is Mark Pastore, son of her daughter, Sheryl. Barbara took her daughter Kathleen's son, Keith Lamarre, with her. Kathleen graduated from Chelmsford High School in 1974 and now lives in Westford.

Barbara Adams Rooks flew to Milwaukee, Wisconsin, to attend her niece's graduation. Her niece is Heather Adams, daughter of Bob Adams, Jr. Barbara had a grand time and flew home safely.

Jean Logan Pearson spent most of the winter in Umatilla, Florida, from December until the end of March. Jean's daughter, Debbie, came up from Florida to attend Jean's granddaughter's graduation. The graduate is Samantha Bastien, daughter of Dawn Pearson Bastien. She graduated from Dracut High School in the top twenty-five percent of the state and is also the recipient of the John Adams Scholarship Award.

I had a swell conversation recently with Jane Cross Swanson who lives in Winter Haven, Florida. She sends a friendly, "Hello!" to all her classmates from Chelmsford High School. When she comes home to visit and goes to see her daughter, Nancy, in Westford, she sees so many changes. "Where have all the orchards gone?" she asks.

Signing off = Bessie (whose old bedroom is now called Wal-Mart)

With the exception of talking with Dorothea Simpson Marinel and Jack Edwards I have heard nothing from my classmates. So if you will bear with me I shall you give you an overview of my last trip to Vegas.

We arrived on Jet Blue which was pleasant but had to go to California first then Vegas. Upon arrival at our hotel, the former San Remo and now called Hooters which, for those who are not familiar, is located on Tropicana Avenue across from the MGM's hotel entrance.

Hooters had only a few months to transform the hotel inside and added another pool plus three hot tub pools of varying sizes. A new restaurant called "Dan Marino" is to be a higher priced restaurant and although I had dinner there business was not great. The main twenty-four hour restaurant, which in the past always had a good turnover during the day of customers, was replaced by a smaller but cleaner restaurant and a reduced menu, hence a much reduced clientele.

The winner of the restaurants was Hooters with the famous Hooters girls who looked about eighteen but I'm told were twenty-one. I thought they were still in high school so I guess that means I'm getting old. The fare in Hooter's is quickie type with everything priced separately. Whatever the draw, between the eleven o'clock opening to closing, the restaurant had lines of people waiting to get in. Will the future change that, as people get sick of the same old menu?

Greetings to all. We hope you had an enjoyable summer and have a great fall with cooler temperatures!

The gals of 1953 continue to have luncheons about once a month. Louise Sweet, Gladys Dubey, Carol Christensen ('54), Joan Clement, Bea Donnelly, Gerry Avila, Gail Greenlaw, Joan Kaknes, Jane Davis, Dottie Leblanc, and Nancy Dzikczek usually attend.

We had a beautiful day at Joan Kaknes' home on Hart Pond, July 19th. Joan had prepared a delicious lunch and her son, Rick, took us for a delightful pontoon boat ride.

Louise Sweet celebrated her 70th birthday with friends at Lake Sunapee, New Hampshire.

Lillian Cappetta hopes to be able to join us for lunch in Nashua. Her husband, Len, is homebound and it is difficult for her to travel far from home.

Lorraine Collette Mellen has moved back to Chelmsford from Florida. We have missed seeing her for two years.

Dottie Leblanc and her daughter, Karen, recently visited their favorite spots in the White Mountains. Dottie's granddaughter, Katy Leblanc, has moved to Austin, Texas, to be a speech therapist. Grandson Matthew Leblanc is a TV anchor-newscaster in Amarillo, Texas.

We send our best to Don and Pat Eliassen as Pat has not been well.

Also, get well wishes to Pat Yates who has been "under the weather" this summer.

Recently seen at Atlantic City, New Jersey, were Dick and Jane Davis, Nancy and Gene Dzikczek, Dottie Boisvert and Millie Whitney, and Eileen Cummings Peterson.

Norm and Jan Forest spent a few weeks in Chelmsford this summer. It's always nice to see them and hear of their activities in Florida.

Gladys Dubey and Nancy Dzikczek attended the CHSAA Annual Meeting at the CHS Dining Hall. We were able to tour the library and see the beautiful display of book covers all from books authored by alumnae. So many talented people!

Hello again. I hope everyone had a great Fourth of July. This summer has been great so far. Joe and I went away to Maine and New Hampshire for our 50th wedding anniversary in June and I am sure that we have more classmates that have celebrated their 50th anniversary as well. Congratulations to all!

While in New Hampshire, we went to visit Butch and Carol Bovill, whom we hadn't seen in awhile. We went out to dinner and went back to their house and caught up on all the news. Carol and Butch are trying to sell their property and move closer to their boys. It is always nice to be with old friends and former school chums.

I had lunch with the girls in June and we planned our upcoming 70th birthday party for the 26th of July at my house. The big seventieth birthday party was a success. The weather was beautiful and the pool was eighty-four plus degrees, the food and drinks were excellent. What more could one ask for? My friends started to arrive about 1:30 pm and stayed until early evening. We had a ball just talking and reminiscing about the old days. We had a surprise visitor – Millie Hehir. Millie was one of our teachers and cheerleading coach in high school. She had a wonderful time seeing old students from the Class of 1954. Attending our celebration were Marcia Cook Bell (who was on vacation from Florida), Carol McGovern Viggiano, Joy Larkin Enis, Lillian LeBrun Morrow, Pat LaCourse Dinigan, Carol Ferreira Christianson, Joan Vennard Connell, Joan Taylor Stavely, Gladys Moore McCoy, Pat Rioux Ralls, Helen Logan Stewart (also from Florida), Theresa Gosselin Patenaude, Shirley Dorsey McCaffrey, Betty Enis Libby, and her friend Mary Blaisdell Tanguay ('55) and myself. Mary lives in Alton Bay, New Hampshire, and Betty in Melvin Village, New Hampshire.

Joe and Carol Marcotte came over. Joe was our class president, so he was able to see many old classmates. Joe and Carol live across the street from me and we have been friends for many, many years. They took many pictures of us so we could all have souvenirs from this day. I hope you enjoy the picture of us old ladies. Before the day was over we had a big birthday cake and we sang "Happy Birthday" to ourselves. What a blast!

CLASS OF 1954 - CELEBRATING A WONDERFUL 70TH!

We all feel good and hope to stay this way for a long, long time. We cannot wait for the next birthday party. I think we should do this every summer as long as we can. Everything was perfect. Thank you, God.

Also we welcome Betty Enis Libby for joining the Chelmsford High School Alumni Association – one more from the Class of 1954. She enjoyed looking over the last edition of the Lion's Pride that came out and she saw a picture of the Class of 1948 from the Westlands School, and decided to join. Now she can keep up with the news from every class and help finance scholarships for graduates from Chelmsford High School. Also a big thank you, Betty, for the picture from the birthday party.

Until next time, stay healthy, happy and keep in touch!

George Perzel and his wife Allmuth have been spotted at their summer home on Colcord Pond in Maine. George retired from Pratt and Whitney in 1999 after a career making gas turbine aircraft engines. He then relocated from Tolland, CT to North Carolina, where he lives during the winter months. The Perzels have spent a good deal of every summer in Maine since they got married in 1970. They are parents of twins, Captain Peter Perzel currently living in Germany and Robert, recently relocated back to Tolland. They also have a granddaughter. George and Allmuth (commonly known as Curly), who met while on vacation in the South Pacific, have completed a beautiful addition/renovation to their long-time home in Maine. The multi-tiered deck system overlooks tranquil Colcord Pond, which is surrounded by summer homes on rather large lots. Every room has large windows that allow a view to the water. It is one of the most peaceful spots you could imagine.

Hope everyone had a great summer. After all the record rains in the spring and early summer, then it was record heat in late July. But having said that I hope everyone enjoyed all cookouts and gatherings in August with family and friends. Now September is here, a favorite time of the year when the weather cools and it is the time to catch up on the news and adventures of your classmates. Bob Wetmore (Bwet1@juno.com) and myself (904-461-4963) are enjoying Florida for the winter. If you are planning a move, have news or photos to share, please contact one of us.

JEWELS OF THE BAY SUMMER OUTING

BUNNY & EARL GUILMETTE,
CHUCK & JOAN MCCARTHY

CHUCK DUNCKLEE,
JUDY CHANDONNET AND
MARIE DUNCKLEE

On Wednesday, July 19, nine classmates had a fantastic summer outing to North Kingston, Rhode Island. Yankee Line Tours departed from the McCarthy Middle School at 9:30 am. We traveled south to Quidnessett Country Club, overlooking Narragansett Bay for our lunch. After our fantastic lunch we proceeded to Quonset Point where we boarded the Vineyard Fast Ferry for a two-hour narrated, "Jewels" of the Bay Cruise. We saw five Rhode Island Lighthouses, viewed Auchincloss Home (Jackie Bouvier), historic Fort Adams, and Newport's Harbor, filled with yachts. Then we passed the Naval War College, and looked at two mothballed aircraft carriers. We cruised under the Newport Bridge back to Quonset Point. Seen having a grand time were Ron Taylor, Judy Harrington Leary ('60), Louis and Judy Fisher Chandonnet, Barney and Pat Elliot Bernard, Gerry Greska, Carol French Miller, Earl and Bunny Guilmette, Paul and Eileen Cummings Peterson ('56), Chuck and Joan McCarthy from Florida and Chuck Duncklee and myself, Marie.

Congratulations to Carol Abrahamson Bovill and her husband, Butch ('53) for celebrating their 50th anniversary in October. Their beautiful home along with a gift shop in Colebrook, New Hampshire is still on the market. Hopefully someone that reads the Lion's Pride may be interested in Moose Country.

Tom and Barbara Bovill visited with them again in July and August.

This past summer Eileen Harrington Collomb of St. Augustine, Florida enjoyed weekly concerts on St. John's County Pier Area. She is planning a trip to Inverness, Florida (on the west coast) in September with her walking club. They will meet up with two other walking clubs to walk the area. In the spring she spent four days with her daughter in Wellington, Colorado.

Bill and Coppy Vennard had their annual family reunion with their family and also brother Peter Vennard's ('58) birthday in July at the Outer Banks. Their photo will be in the winter edition of the Lion's Pride. Bill's new grandson was a big hit with the families.

Nancy Leslie Avila of Chandler, Arizona enjoyed the month of April visiting with her Aunt Kay here in town. They had a great excursion to Newport, Rhode Island to view some of the mansions (summer cottages) along with having lunch in one of them. Then they were off to the Cape to visit our Aunt Helen for a few days to enjoy some great seafood. While here in town she took advantage of visiting other family relatives along with a visit to an aunt in Maine. And of course there were many trips to Sully's and Kimball's to enjoy her favorite ice cream, one of the many joys of New England.

In July, Chuck and Joan McCarthy from Davenport, Florida, spent a few weeks vacation with his sister, Judy McCarthy Olsson ('62) in town. They spent many days visiting with their daughter and grandchildren in Dracut. Chuck and Joan took a trip up to Lake Winnepesaukee to visit with Larry Litchfield and Kurt Anderson ('54). We were glad to have Chuck and Joan join us on our summer outing, "Jewels of the Bay." Chuck is trying to organize a Florida get together. Maybe at the Cape Canaveral John F. Kennedy Space Center in January or February. If interested in joining us email him at cpmc@aol.com or contact Bob or myself for more info.

New digs – Prue Pouliot McBride and her husband, Mike, have moved yet again from Georgetown, Texas, to 1769 Appling Oak Circle, Cordova, Tennessee 38016. The move goes like this. They made a visit to their daughter, Kelly, and her three girls in Tennessee this past spring, loved the area, looked at condos and fell in love with a new condo community. They went back to Texas where daughter, Kim, lives in the Dallas area with her two girls. They put their house on the market in Georgetown – For Sale by Owner – and sold it in two days. They packed and moved to Cordova Memorial Weekend. I hope I got the story right. Also, Malcolm Kydd moved a year ago from Winnisquam, New Hampshire, to Gilford, New Hampshire at 90 Countryside Drive.

This past March, Eric "Rick" Johnson and Sharon from Solvang, California, went on an RV rally and saw Pat Sorbo Carlson and her husband, Dave, of Valencia, California.

Tid Bit – Happy birthday to all the mates who celebrated their big 70th in 2006. Betty Lee Morrison Buttler in January, Ron Taylor in February, Paul Peterson in July, Bob Welcome in August, Carol Abrahamson Bovill in September, Erick "Rick" Johnson in October and Earl Guilmette in November. Sorry to have missed Tom Bovill's big day; it was June 2005.

Around & about – In the spring Tom and Barbara Bovill had a nice visit with Butch and Carol Abrahamson Bovill in town. It was their annual trip south to buy a load of flowering plants for their beautiful gift shop in Colebrook, New Hampshire. This summer Tom and Barbara enjoyed their cottage in Middleton, New Hampshire – a great hideaway. They also took some time to visit with Malcolm Kydd at his new digs.

Ann Dale Davis and her husband, Roger, had a very busy summer with the family and their seventeen grandchildren, traveling from town to their getaway place in Conway, New Hampshire.

Chris and Dottie Tassios Zahos embarked on the Norwegian Majesty cruise ship out of Boston to Bermuda, berthing in St. George in May for seven day relaxing trip. Then in July they took a bus tour, traveling along the rugged Maine coast to Halifax, Nova Scotia and St. Johns, New Brunswick.

In April, Edrene Gunther Lobas from West Harwich had a great vacation with three friends to Washington, DC. It was sponsored by the Council on Aging (COA). Every town on the Cape was invited. This past May Edrene traveled on her tenth annual trip to Marco Island, Florida, for a week.

In the spring Dick and Priscilla Burt of North Chelmsford spent a two-week vacation, which included a visit with their son, Richard, in Highlands Ranch, Colorado. They went to Durango to board the Durango-Silverton, a narrow gauge railroad and then traveled to Silverton. Then they were off to a two day guided tour through the Navajo Indian Reservation. They also traveled to Sedona and Prescott, Arizona, before heading south to Phoenix where they boarded a flight for home. In August the happy couple celebrated their fortieth wedding anniversary.

Earl and Bunny Guilmette, also of North Chelmsford, flew to Miami and from there they were off to Key Largo for an April vacation. Then in June they traveled to Irvington, New York, for their granddaughter's sixth birthday. She had a fun party with twenty-three other six year olds. Guess who was the clown and had the most fun?

Bob and Gay McEvoy of Westford, as we write, are traveling in the Scandinavian countries. I will tell you all about it in the next Lion's Pride.

Lenny and Pauline Leedberg enjoyed their summer here in North Chelmsford with family and friends. They are planning to spend December through March in Gulf Shores, Alabama, instead of Florida. They will also make some side trips to Biloxi, Mississippi.

Ron Taylor of Chelmsford in late July had just returned from visiting with his son, Ron, Jr., in Atlanta. He was there to make use of his talents to ready a nursery room for his son's first born in December. We hope all goes well! Then he was off to visit with Malcolm Kydd in Guilford, New Hampshire.

This past May Gerry Greska of Chelmsford and Carol French Miller of Hudson, New Hampshire, followed in the footsteps of Lewis and Clark and the Oregon Trail pioneers. They went on a carefully planned seven-day stern-wheeler "Queen of the West" by American West Steamboat Company cruise. Gerry and Carol flew to Portland, Oregon and embarked in Astoria, to cruise nearly 1,000 miles along the Columbia, Snake and Willamette Rivers. They also cruised through three states – Oregon, Washington, and Idaho, along with cruising through eight of the Columbia and Snake Rivers locks and dams systems. They saw lots of salmon and bears. Gerry and Carol relaxed in pampered luxury and comfort on their verandah off their suite. It was truly a memorable vacation.

For the month of July, Louis and Judy Fisher Chandonnet of Hampstead, New Hampshire, had their daughter, Suzann, from California, grand twin girls and their grandson, Charlie, visiting in their summer home in Saco, Maine. Their daughter, Kim, is also in the same area on the Saco River, and son, Craig, lives in Hampstead. Louis and Judy are seen in Saco as teenagers, pedaling their new bicycles, complete with white walls. Such fun!

Bob Wetmore was glad some of his classmates visited with him at the Ralph House Scholarship booth this past 4th of July, selling his famous lobster rolls to raise money for the fund. This summer he was kept very busy organizing clambakes for the Lodge, Tyngsboro Sportsmen's Club and the Hampton Boat Club of which he is in his second year as a commodore.

'Til next time, Happy Thanksgiving, Merry Christmas, and Happy 2007. Be safe, happy, and well.
-Bob and Marie.

With sadness I have to report the passing of another one of our classmates. Eddie Murphy died on July 11, 2006. Our sympathy to his four children and brother and sisters.

Plans are well underway for our 50th reunion. As of this writing we have sixty-six reservations with forty being classmates arriving on September 30th. This edition of the Lion's Pride goes to press before our reunion, so the write up and pictures will be in the winter edition. Where did the fifty years go?

It is with sincere regret that I want to inform everyone of the death of one of our classmates. Dorothy Moreton Robertson passed away on April 19, 2006, in Texas. Her husband, Scott, informed us that she had a heart attack. They would have celebrated their 42nd anniversary in July. Our sympathy goes out to Scott and the entire family.

By now everyone should have received his or her information about our 50th reunion next year. I hope everyone is planning to attend. We still need addresses for the following classmates: Richard Gauthier, Pete Goodwill, Robert Ingalls, Bertha (Szuch)(Mackey)(?). If anyone can help us with any of these we'd appreciate it.

Beth Simpson McHugh, Berta Jones Erickson, Brenda Vinecombe, myself and other friends took a step back in time when we went to a Peter, Paul, and Mary concert. It was great! They still have that old magic.

I hope everyone had a great summer. Mine had highs and lows. One of the lowest was when my mum died six days before her 91st birthday. One of my highs was a baby shower for our daughter who is expecting our new grandson in October.

Kathy Kulski Martin had a luncheon for Connie Grondine Mullen when she was here visiting. Quite a few classmates attended and talked about our 50th and had a great time. Sorry I missed it.

Wayne and I picked up Ralph and Carmen Nickerson at their home in Hampton and went up to Scarborough, Maine, to Ron and Lettie Aubrey's home. They have a great house with a huge pool in the back yard that is landscaped with flowers and a terraced patio where we ate. Ron is a great cook and we were well fed, including a yummy dessert. The guys had some of Ron's deer and moose meat. Our visit was celebrated with a lightning storm and a horrendous downpour that was so heavy on our way home that we, along with many others, had to pull off the highway because we couldn't see to drive.

In July some of the '57ers got together for lunch. Lorraine Eno Prescott and Jessie MacKenzie Moore came from New Hampshire, Berta Jones Erickson from Groton, Ann Marie Sehlstedt Winkowski from Dunstable, Maureen Curran Aspell from Tewksbury, Pat Westwood Marchand from Westford and joined Beth Simpsom McHugh, Lillian Gray Roberts, Kay Marrow Stidsen, Brenda Vinecombe and myself here in Chelmsford. The food was great and the company was the greatest! One of our classmates made the local paper due to her golf swing. Berta Jones Erickson was playing in a foursome at Groton Country Club when the historical swing was made. The newspaper article mentioned that the squirrels in the area are still seen waving white flags.

There are four of our classmates that have twin grandchildren: Francine O'Sullivan Garrity, Jack Flavell, Dick DeFreitas and our newest, Maureen Curran Aspell. Do you know any others?

By the time you read this our mini-reunion on September 23rd at Hampton should have taken place. News about that in the next Lion's Pride.

Several of our classmates heard mention on TV that Marjorie Scaboria was 100 years old this year. Send belated greetings to 865 Central Avenue C205, Needham, MA 02492. Isn't it wonderful that she and Miss Booth, who were two of the greatest teachers we had, have both turned 100 this year? The following is a copy of the letter that Ray Johnson wrote to Miss Booth after her address was published in the Lion's Pride:

*Dear Miss Booth,
I hope this letter reaches you in good health.*

My name is Raymond Johnson, Jr. At Chelmsford High you were my Latin teacher in 1955-56. You were also my father's teacher about 1930-31. His name was Raymond Johnson, Sr.

I have never forgotten you over all these years, because your discipline and organization were so influential and formative for me throughout my life.

Your obvious love for Rome and its history made me a lover of history, as well. When I entered your classroom I was a local boy who lived on a farm and never thought of the world beyond Boston and Worcester.

I started college at Lowell Tech. I moved to California and finished college here at the University of Southern California. I became a pharmacist, and of course, Latin was quite helpful to me in my pharmacy studies. Although my college work was mostly technical, I made an effort to take many college history classes. Since graduation my wife and I have traveled through much of the world.

When I graduated from college, my wife and I spent a year in Europe. During that year we spent about a month in Italy. When we drove our camper across the Rubicon we thought of you. We spent two weeks in Rome and often thought of you while walking through the Forum, Circus Maximus, Pantheon, Coliseum, and the other sights.

Now, I have sold my businesses, and my wife and I are going to Europe for six weeks. We will be spending one week in Rome. Although I vividly remember our first visit to Rome, we will be seeing all the historic sights again.

And, of course, we will be thinking of you. I thank you for being so formative in my life.

That's it for now. Please send me your news!

Well, time sure does fly when it comes to doing these columns and getting the news out to the classmates.

Edie Sousa Olsen missed the mini cookout because she had planned another trip to see her children in California. One of these days we'll see you, Edie! We missed you! We also missed Jackie and Pat Scaplen, Dave and Mariette Johnson, Al and Roberta Braga Davidson, and a few others. We hope to catch you next time.

Ruthie Grivers went to Baytown, Texas, to see her new grandson, Jeremy Ashton McLaughlin. (See page 39 for photo.) He was born to Sarah and Joseph McLaughlin. Joe is a CHS graduate from the Class of 1985.

We had another cookout on August 19th at my house. Once again it was a great time. This time we had some new classmates joining us. It's so nice to see everyone; it makes you feel so good. Please see the photos we've included in this edition of the Lion's Pride.

Lois Giffin Grenier and her husband, George, took the Norwegian Majesty cruise from Boston to Bermuda this past May and June. The ship docked in St. George for three and a half days. They took a five-hour tour of the island, and also a horse and buggy tour. They enjoyed the cruise so much they have booked the same cruise for June 2007. This time they plan to spend a day in the capital of Hamilton. The convenience of going out of Boston is what makes this cruise so inviting and less expensive than when one flies to Florida. Also, this is "freestyle" cruising – no formal wear is necessary. In July they flew to Jacksonville, Florida, and then drove a half hour to Amelia Island. They arrived on Thursday, July 6, and on Saturday attended a wedding for the daughter of friends. The reception was at the Ritz Carlton hotel with a beach party for everyone after the formal reception. Sunday was a day of relaxation before flying home on Monday, July 10th. They found Amelia Island to be a wonderful place for a vacation. The town is quaint and the people at the Hampton Inn where they stayed were very friendly and accommodating. It is definitely a place they would return to again.

We welcome Carolyn Tebeau Livingston as a new member to the CHSAA. Carolyn lives in Chelmsford. We also welcome Marion Cafiso Auger to the alumni association! Marion lives in Dunedin, Florida.

Lois Reid Diorio is living in San Jose, California.

I haven't heard any news - sunny or cloudy - so I hope that is good and everyone is doing well in our class.

If you have photos to share for the class news, feel free to send actual photos to me, Ruthie, at the address above. Unfortunately I can't do email copies. Should you have an email photo, please forward that to the Assistant Editor of the Lion's Pride, Kristin Morris Thomas ('87) at Kristin@volvomom.com.

Until we meet again may the sun shine over all of us.

Our condolences are extended to Betsy Draine, whose dad passed away this summer. Her Mom is still in Concord, MA. Betsy's unplanned trip back from Europe due to her dad's sickness and passing allowed several of us to spend a little time with her at the Yearbook signing party in the spring. Judy Sidebottom Putnam also was able to spend an afternoon with Bets in August, walking around Mount Holyoke, her alma mater.

Paula Little Kitses wrote from from San Francisco this spring. "SF has been my home now for over 30 years. I'm active in local and federal Democratic politics and own a few rental units in the city. My BA in Public Policy/ Humanities is from New College of California. My husband, a professor of film at SF State and an author of books on the western, and I have a beautiful 17-year-old daughter named Anastasia. My retirement from work as a United Airlines flight attendant will be official in June. That will cap a 30 year career that includes flying out of JFK with Eastern, Los Angeles and San Francisco with National, Pan Am and United. Merger mania in the airline industry after deregulation worked in my favor, allowing me to experience not only different corporate environments but different destinations as well. It would not be an understatement to say I have traveled the world.”

Carol Hough LaFortune, Marilyn Davis Colburn, and Barbara Kimball Mackey had a get together as old (long-time) friends from the 1960's. Carol was visiting from Bradenton, Florida on a victory tour of the northeast. She was here visiting her children and grandchildren.

Bob and Barbara Mackey traveled to Asheville, NC for the 20th Engineer Brigade reunion for those that served from 1967 - 1973 in Vietnam. Asheville is the home of the Biltmore Mansion, an impressive, but rather pricey home. The Mackeys are considering a move south, but decided against buying the mansion in favor of a potential South Carolina location.

Joanne and Jim Parker have announced the birth, March 18, 2006, of their first grandchild, Alyssa “Ally” Kelly Grinnell. Jennifer Parker and David Grinnell are the proud parents living in Monson, MA.

John Flanagan was one of only 30 people this year in the greater Boston area to attend the FBI Citizens Academy. He reports: “We spent time on the firing range using FBI weapons, studied crime scenes and a few of the class members tried to fool the polygraph test (lie detector). I also have some information about protecting children on the Internet, from sexual predators. We viewed their SWAT team in an exercise to free hostages, they use live ammunition during this practice and we were all required to wear bulletproof vests when we entered the building for a closer look of the takeover of the building. Their team leaves the helicopter before the back pads of the chopper touch the ground and I can tell you first hand you don't want to be between them and their mission. They act with lightning speed, precision and deadly force if necessary; the criminal would not have much of a chance against them. They blew a one foot round hole through a metal exterior door; this also knocked the door several feet from its original position on the building. After attending the classes I can see where this would be a good career for some one who wants to help their country. They have realigned their operations to work closely with other law enforcement groups and help in some of the training of our top state and federal groups. Their primary goals are protecting the country from terrorism, crimes against children and violent crimes.”

Nipper Johnson is also moving to South Carolina. He writes: “Yes, I am moving. Actually we are already in SC, and trying to sell our Chelmsford house, that still has about 1/4 of our stuff in it to ‘pose’ the house so someone will buy it. Hmmm. Wanna move back south where the winters are more forgiving? I likely will not teach in a regular university classroom again, but might teach a course or two here and there for a local college or do something with student teachers. Who knows? Right now I will let writing be my thing and live off royalties and pensions. My stuff does pretty well, and I have 2 books coming out this fall. Nothing that the NY Times will review, but math people seem to like them.” (Class agent's note: With forty some odd textbooks to his credit, Nipper downplays his success as an author.)

To complete a South Carolina trifecta, Chuck and Sue Cooke are building a new home in South Carolina in a golf community. Sue retired this year from a principal's position in Wenham, MA. Chuck retired some time before, but was so hard to replace he was retained as a contractor to do the same job from which he retired. Now he also is fully retired.

Russ Mann returned safely from a trip across the United States on his Harley. He made a lot of new friends and visited the old ones. A great article was published in the Lowell Sun on August 22, 2006, about his adventure.

Jimmy Quinn's birthday was also in August. "Where's Nancy Hughes?" was the question many asked. Jim's sister, Louise, held the party at the American Legion. Classmates who attended were Leo Ralowitz, Russ Mann, Harlene Nutter Hennessey, myself, and Russ's brother, Steve Mann, who came down from Lacomia. Everyone had a great time and the music was great. Jim received many gifts, and his favorite was his very own Jimmy Doll, which looked just like him or possibly Keith Richards."

Nancy Hughes adds:

What an unusual summer we had here in New England. Lots of rain and then way too much heat. I had some trees taken down this spring to let the sun shine on the old, damp house. It's not damp around here anymore!

The first two weeks in August were perfect, though. How lucky I was to start my vacation when the high heat and humidity left us. Two weeks at Seabrook is how I spend my time off. My two sons, Kenny ('88) and Stephen ('91) came down to spend some days beachin' with me. They came with their wives and my grandchildren. A highlight for me was watching the sunrise with my six-year-old granddaughter, Paige Hughes. What fabulous colors we saw at 5:39am, with our blankets around us, the same feeling as cold as snow and the moon still out. Nothing short of an illness or an emergency can get me to come home during those two weeks. That's why I was marked absent at Jimmy's party.

I also missed Sue Lajoie Holt's daughter Lisa's wedding. Sue also became engaged this summer. Congrats to all.

Russ Mann also saw some awesome colors in the sky this summer. The Lowell Sun did a great story of his solo cross-country trip from Littleton Road to California and back. Russ says his batteries are all recharged and he sees things with a clearer head now. To you, Russ, I say, "Good ride, Cowboy to Jim! 60 more!" And to my classmates, stay well and have a great fall and winter.

Hello from Wendy Marshall-Hudzik!

As I write this (Sunday of Labor Day weekend) it is pouring rain. So, what else is new?! I had started writing some of this news for the spring edition, but time slipped away from me. So here is nine months' worth of what I hear of our classmates. Not enough about you? Email me or call, please.

It was great getting together with "the girls" at Mary Munroe Nihan's house in January to look over photos of the reunion and reminisce about the great time we all had. It sure was nice hearing all the positive feedback.

GOLFING AT OWL'S NEST IN CAMPTON, NH - ERWIN JALBERT & DAVE SILVA
CLASS OF 1968; JUDY TRAYWICK JALBERT, SHARON BOEGEL SILVA, MARY
MUNROE NIHAN, CLASS OF 1970

Gathering for libation and great food were Debbie Gaffney Holmes, Carol Glidden DiMaio, Judy Traywick Jalbert, Mary, and myself. A lot of laughs were had. We hope whoever would like to get together with us sometime (guys too) would get in touch with one of us. We hope to do it again soon.

As you can see by the photo, some of our classmates continue to "play" together. The years may pass but some are fortunate to have life-long friends. Mary and Judy get to visit quite often while Sharon joins in when she can.

I also have been blessed with long-time friends, Janie Hoyt Cowgill, Patty Britton and Pam Donaldson Fiske, who are all doing well. In fact, Janie and I got to escape to Pam and Steve Fiske's ('69) beautiful home on Square Pond in Shapleigh, Maine, for a couple of days at the beginning of August. It was beautiful weather to cruise around on their party boat, pick blueberries and visit with their friends and daughter Libby. She is a really great "kid", very personable and very generous in giving up her bedroom suite for us to "crash". She will be attending her first year of college this semester. As always, good times pass too quickly, but we hopefully will be getting together again over the winter, along with some others, for a girls' weekend.

The CHSAA awarded a scholarship in this June in memory of Carol Carr Ingalls. Carol had gone on to Lowell State graduating in 1974. She had taught math at CHS for years and was fondly remembered by everyone. The class of 1985 honored her by the scholarship in her name.

Jeff Manning and Sterling Jones had gotten in touch with Judy, unfortunately too late for our reunion, but they are fine.

Again, please feel free to send in your news. Have a great autumn and enjoy the holidays!
