EDITOR'S NOTE

Kris Pisarik '77

I WILL MISS MY INSTANT CONNECTION TO CHS

It's with extremely mixed emotions that I begin my final year as a parent of a Chelmsford High School student. I can't believe my youngest daughter, Jennie, is a senior and will soon be filling out college applications. Where did the time go? It's truly mind-boggling how fast these past 10 years have gone by. I'm sure any of you who are parents can relate.

For the past decade, I've always had at least one child enrolled at CHS. I am truly proud all four of my daughters will have graduated in very good standing from my alma mater. My oldest, Beth, graduated in 2006, Alyssa in 2008 and Kristi in 2011. When Jennie takes the stage in her cap and gown in June, it will be the end of an era for the Pisarik family. Looking back, it's been a great one.

The multitude of track and cross-country meets, concerts and school-award assemblies has been a rewarding way of life these past 10 years. And while they more often than not have pre-empted other social or leisure opportunities, I wouldn't trade them for the world.

I'm going to miss watching my kids shine, and being able to be there when they sometimes fail and pick them back up again. I'm going to miss the camaraderie of the players, the students and friends they've made – and the ones my wife and I have made as well. I'm sure we'll stay in touch with the best of those, as there's no severing a bond forged standing together in freezing rain or snow at a cross-country meet or by getting sun-burned in 90-plus-degree heat at a spring track meet.

Yes, we have suffered for our children, and at times traveled great distances. But win or lose, it's always been worth the trip.

This is a special school, a special community. And I'm going to miss that instant connection to it that being a parent affords.

And so as I embark on what I'm sure will be a very fast and emotional year, I ask your assistance in the future for helping me stay connected to all the great stuff happening at CHS. I will still be your Lion's Pride editor. (George Simonian refuses to let me out of my long-term contract.) But I don't want it to be from a distance. I need, this magazine needs, a direct connection with the school – the kids.

So I ask you to help me recruit current CHS students. Recruit them to consider joining the Alumni Association when they graduate. And recruit those students who are interested in writing, photography or both, digital and social media – that would be about 99 percent of them – to contact me about devoting several hours a quarter or semester to help the magazine.

Show this article, and more importantly the "Contact Me" box, to your children, grandchildren or anyone with students currently or soon to be enrolled at CHS. We can probably work out community service points through the school. They will also get some tutoring and guidance from a veteran journalist. Presently The Sun's Managing Editor/Nights, I have worked at the Lowell-based newspaper since 1979. I want the Lion's Pride to continue to live up to its name in the future. And that, and the future of association as a whole, depends upon it. And thanks. 🐉

❖ PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE ❖

Terry McSheehy

Hello everyone. I hope you all had a wonderful summer.

As we approach the holidays I want to take a few minutes to thank the people who have worked so hard this summer.

I want to thank John Sousa and all of his wonderful volunteers who manned the 4th of July booth this year. We had banner recruitment at the booth this year with 28 new members, 19 members who had dropped out and now rejoined, as well as 11 members who paid their dues. The efforts of John, who is unfortunately stepping down as chairman of this committee, are greatly appreciated.

Secondly I want to thank Jessica McSheehy Del Llano, for her continuing hard work to make our web site (chsalumni.org) a fun, interesting and informative place to visit. I want to also thank her for her hard work, as well as the hard work of her committee, in our first and very successful attempt to establish a relationship with the students at the High School by hosting a watermelon table at the Senior Day festivities. Thanks also go to Stop & Shop for donating the watermelons.

Membership continues to be a problem as we don't seem to be able to retain current members while we add a few new members. This results in our membership being flat, if not declining a little, year to year. Any and all suggestions from you on how to change this disturbing trend will be appreciated and taken under serious consideration by the committee, the Board of Directors and me. We will establish a new membership committee who will work on ideas to improve our retention of members as well as ways to increase the number of new members we sign-up each year. This committee will also evaluate and implement those ideas that you generate.

The CHSAA store is now open for business at the web site, I hope that everyone who is interested in CHSAA apparel will visit the store and see the wide selections that are available.

Thanks to everyone who has helped to make my 11th year as President so much fun and who have had a major part in whatever measure of success I have had.

Happy Holidays to everyone from all of us at the CHSAA. See you next year. ❖

❖ PRINCIPAL'S REPORT ❖

Charles Caliri

After I had been announced as the next Chelmsford High School Principal last spring, I came to meet the faculty during the last professional day of the year. It was really a terrific day – Anne O'Bryant graciously introduced me to the faculty, provided me with my first piece of CHS regalia (an official 'Lions' tie), and gave me the chance to have lunch with the faculty and to circulate through their professional development groups. The afternoon was relaxed and casual, and ultimately helped me to shape my entry plan as the principal from the high school where I graduated years before ('90).

A flood of memories came rushing back as I walked from the front parking lot down the walkway to the main entrance. When I entered the main office, I was greeted with a, "You haven't changed a bit...well maybe a little bit more gray than you were back then." Catching me completely by surprise I stumbled through a greeting. "Ummm, Hi...uh... Mr. Simonian." And there he was, George Simonian, the architect of Chelmsford High, the first Principal of the new CHS, and my Principal. We exchanged pleasantries that afternoon, and agreed to meet over the summer to talk about all things Chelmsford High. I had my checkbook ready for the meeting, knowing that George would talk to me about the CHS Alumni Association. I was amazed by his commitment to the organization and the level of support the organization provides to our school and our students. As a result, I couldn't help myself from getting swept up by his passion. I blindly and eagerly said, "yes" to whatever he needed, and here I am writing my introductory piece for my first issue of Lion's Pride.

As a graduate of CHS and former resident of Chelmsford, I have deep respect and appreciation for Chelmsford High School. The teachers and students at CHS largely shaped my ideas of secondary education and inspired me to pursue a career in education.

Since graduating from Chelmsford High, I have always looked back fondly on the sense of community that existed here and have spent my educational career trying to find it. There are lots of great memories I have of my youth in Chelmsford. My story was a little different than most CHS graduates; I was a "blow-in" moving here from Tewksbury in March of my 6th grade year. It was hard – I left my friends, my school, my sports teams, my neighborhood...everything. What I couldn't believe, and still can't believe, was how members of this town took me under their wing and made me feel as though I had always been here.

What I remember most about Chelmsford was the notion of 'Chelmsford Pride.' There was this tremendous sense of community, where people looked out for one another, supported one another, and worked hard together to improve. For me, Chelmsford High School represents the focal point of the at-large Chelmsford community, and it is a tremendous honor and a privilege to be able to come full circle and contribute some of my own ideas and experiences to support CHS in fulfilling its mission. In future issues, I'll use this opportunity to reach out to all of you in the Alumni Association and share some stories and some of our achievements at the high school. ❖

COVER STORY

FOR NEW CHS PRINCIPAL CHARLES CALIRI, A NEW BEGINNING AND A HOMECOMING

Charles Caliri looks pretty relaxed in his shorts, polo shirt and sneakers as he entertains a visitor in his cramped office at Chelmsford High exactly one week before the start of the new school year, his first at the helm of CHS or anywhere else for that matter.

“More nervous or excited” for opening day, he’s asked.

“It’s time to pull that Band-Aid off,” he says, adding that he has worked all summer getting to know the school, the system, the teachers — to that point 40 of them had taken him up on his offer to sit down and talk and get acquainted.

Caliri says he learned a lot over the summer and that CHS has a great support staff of which he’s been asking lots of question. “They’ve provided me with a great deal of information, and that prompts more questions about what should stay and what should change. All that has been great feedback.

“But I’m missing the noises of the school, the kids in the hall, the opening doors,” he adds.

Caliri, 39, a 1990 CHS grad, has spent his share of time in school halls. He comes to CHS after a five-year stint as dean at Lexington High. Before that he was director of Math, Science and Technology for grades 6-12 in Hopkinton.

His career as an educator officially began as a science teacher in Revere 1995, but perhaps it began long before that.

The son of two teachers — his mother taught in Billerica, his father in Somerville -- Caliri says he grew up being taught, “you’re not going to be a teacher,” since education in the post-Proposition 2 ½ era was not always an easy way to earn a living. “I spent the better part of my life running from my future,” he laughs.

Since he was a science buff, Caliri majored in biology in the pre-med program at Boston College, but when he didn’t get accepted into medical school, Caliri took a job working in a lab. After a couple of years, his father, having had a change of heart about a career in education after the approval of the Education Reform Act in 1993, prodded his son to get his teacher’s license.

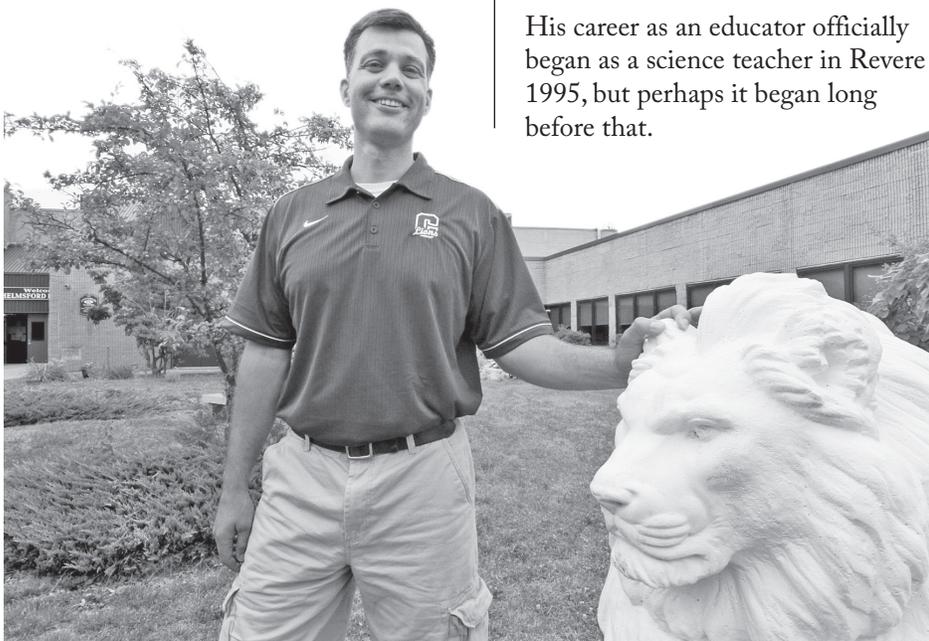

So he did.

He applied in Revere for what he called a “high risk, high gain” position, teaching both the highest and lowest-achieving students. “I got to work in a classroom and felt really comfortable.” (He also coached some basketball and volleyball in Revere.)

He’s never looked back.

By most Townie standards, Caliri, now a Holden resident, where he lives with his wife, Sarah, and children Matthew, 6, Michael, 4, and Emma, 2, would have been considered a “blow-in” when his family moved to Chelmsford for sixth grade to avoid the double sessions he was about to experience in Tewksbury where they were living at the time.

"It was hard (uprooting and leaving friends), but this town embraced me. I made friends," he recalls.

A National Honor Society member and JV basketball player at CHS, Caliri says he wishes he had participated in more extracurricular activities, but worked a lot of hours at Somerville Lumber in Acton.

But what he might have lacked in extras he made up for in the classroom, thanks to the likes of then-English teacher (and present Emerson House Dean) Jeff Doherty, who he still calls a "charismatic guy," and math teacher Rebecca Nordengren, who "pushed me and was a driving force" for him in AP calculus.

Caliri says his CHS foundation, with its house system and structure, is what he thinks high schools should be. "There's a whole sense of character and community that I haven't seen in other places."

When news spread last year that CHS Principal Anne O'Bryant would be retiring, Caliri says, "I said, 'I've got to give this a shot.'"

"I was happy in Lexington," he says, acknowledging he was also a finalist for the position at Nashoba Regional in Bolton and in Hudson, in an effort to be closer to Holden.

"I chose to come home," he stresses.

Now that he's here, Caliri knows there is work to be done. Helping a high school move forward in an ever-changing digital age will be one challenge, he says. And at this writing, the finishing touches were being put on the draft of the school's re-accreditation report, which will highlight its strengths and weaknesses.

He smiles again; perhaps knowing he's inheriting a school that is likely to have many more checks in the "plus" column.

Stealing a quick glance over the stacks of paper and folders that have enveloped his office, he says, "At times it's a little overwhelming, but the kids are going to come and learn. And I know my way around, and teachers and staff all make it easier.

"There's something about this town that makes you want to come back," Caliri says. "There's a great sense of community and pride." 🍷

Thanks to alumni and friends who are giving back to CHS so that future alumni can receive some financial help as they pursue college careers.

More designated scholarships are being added to the endowment fund every year. As of this moment - we have 98 with 1 more in the pipeline.

The 14th Annual Scholarship Awards Night was held on May 14, 2012, another huge success, well over two hundred recipients, parents, scholarship donors, high school staff and association members in attendance. The ceremony was held in the Performing Arts Center. A perfect venue for a great night.

Awarded $53,500 in 120 scholarships to CHS seniors and alumni who are presently in college and $200 to a senior from Wilmington High School.

Since 1993 - a total of $ 520,000 in 1015 scholarships to CHS seniors and alumni and $ 3,700 to 16 Wilmington High School seniors.

A special thanks to the scholarship committee chaired by Joan Murphy and Carol Pilat for their efforts in determining the scholarship recipients.

And a special thanks to the awards night committee chaired by Nancy Hughes for all of their efforts in making that evening such a success. Next awards night will be held Thursday, 9 May 2013 in the Performing Arts Center.

On the negative side. We still lose about a dozen members every quarter due to non-payment of dues, if we didn't have this loss - our membership would be well over 4000.

are available in the library. There are 96 works on display. A display case houses copies of the published works.

Many thanks to Mark Maybury for all of his efforts in collecting the works and preparing them for display.

You should make an effort to see the Authors' Corner.

The CHSAA web site is our immediate link to the outside world. Thanks to Jessica Del Llano.

CHSAlumni.Org

It features Who We Are, Calendar of Events, endowment fund information, scholarship information, scholarship winners, Hall of Fame information, Hall of Famers, membership information, and alumni information for reunions.

High school initiatives this past year we added two students as non-voting members to the board of directors.

The objectives behind this action was to increase our knowledge of high school activities from the students' perspective and for the students to become more aware of what an alumni association is all about. Just prior to graduation, the association provided all the watermelon that the seniors could eat at their senior week picnic. Thanks to Jessica Del Llano for her leadership in this effort. Our hope is to build on this success with similar activities this coming year.

The Capital Campaign has been put on the back burner for the time being. As you know - our goal is still $5 million.

One million - endowment fund for salaries: executive director, administrative assistant and a web-master.

One million - endowment fund for operating the association

Two million - construction of a new Alumni Hall

One million - endowment fund for alumni hall operation.

What we need now are a few alumni players who would like to make their alumni association a philanthropy and then watch the fund grow.

At this time I would like to thank Anne O'Bryant and now Charlie Caliri and the staff at the high school for their 100% support of our alumni association over the past number of years and the Superintendent's office for their continuous support and for allowing us to use this building whenever we need to --- such as tonight.

In closing - I would like to thank Terry McSheehy for all that he does as president -- especially putting up with me. Thanks to Bob Pariseau, our vice-president, who does all of the "behind the scenes" work for all of our standing committees.

Thanks to our treasurer, Elisa Ouellette, for keeping all of our financial matters neat and clean.

To Nancy Hughes, our clerk, who never misses a board meeting and to Jessica Del Llano for her efforts as our recording secretary. And finally, the Board of Directors and all the committee members who have worked hard this past year to make this organization the huge success that it is today.

However as I have said all along – people and organizations can be like trees. The rise to prominence is exhilarating, but anything that puts up shoots faster than it puts down roots is fragile and in danger of breaking, falling, or dying. The capital campaign is crucial if we are to endure as a viable organization.

Thank you. 🌸

CHS STUDENT PROFILE

By Debora Haywood ('74)

BENJAMIN PATRICK MARTIN

Benjamin Martin is an outstanding choice for this issue's student profile. His many activities, high academic standing, his ability to get along with others and the variety of volunteer activities he participates in are both interesting and impressive.

Ben is the son of Carol (Barboza'83) and Kevin Martin. He has one sibling, Nicholas, who graduated in 2011 and is currently attending Northeastern University. Ben has maintained an outstanding cumulative GPA throughout his time at Chelmsford High School. He currently has a 3.97 and is ranked 21st in his class of 355 students.

I asked Ben his favorite thing about Chelmsford High and without hesitation he said, "The teachers. They are so very passionate about what they teach and want you to succeed. They are always there to help."

He has challenged himself with many honors and advanced-placement courses. He is an active member of both the National Honor Society and the Spanish Honor Society. He has spent countless hours volunteering both with school and community groups. He was a key volunteer with the inaugural "What's Cooking on the Common" fundraiser for the Chelmsford Food Pantry.

Ben is always present at school activities. Ben is kind, well mannered and respectful, all of which has helped him earn the respect of both his teachers and his peers. This is clearly demonstrated by being selected to be a freshman mentor and being elected by his peers to the position of Vice President of the Class of 2013. As the class advisor of the Class of 2014, I cannot think of better role model for my class representatives to look up to than Ben.

Class of 2013 advisor Brian Acheson agrees and has this to say about Ben: "What sets Ben apart from some of his peers is his enthusiasm. Ben walks into the room with a big smile and his personality just brings the room to life. He is always eager to help out anyone who needs it. I think Ben ran for Vice-President not to make his senior year wonderful, but rather to make sure that everyone else has a great senior year. He is a true leader." When asked if he thought that there were enough choices and opportunities for after-school activities Ben said, "Definitely, everyone is involved in something. There are always kids around after school and a wide variety of choices of things to do."

Ben is a very active member of our DECA group. He also was part of the first-place team from CHS sent to the MSBA Banking Competition at the Federal Reserve in Boston. Andy Shupe '92, co-advisor to the DECA organization, had this to say about Ben: "Ben teamed with Jeff Breton to place first in the Financial Analysis Team Decision Making Event at the 2012 DECA State Career Development Conference, earning them the opportunity to represent CHS at the International Conference in Salt Lake City, Utah, in April 2012. At the SCDC, Ben and Jeff earned a Certificate of Achievement. Ben possesses the ability not only to analyze the complex data in a case study, but also to quickly prepare and deliver a clear, yet eloquent presentation of his findings. Moving forward, these skills are going to serve him extremely well."

Amazingly, Ben still finds time to play two varsity sports at CHS, basketball and baseball. Baseball coach Michael O'Keefe captures all there is to say about Ben: "He is a fantastic young man who truly brightens any room he enters. His positive attitude is contagious. He works well in all settings and is someone of whom the community and the school can be most proud. He is a true leader who is constantly working for the betterment of all."

Next fall, Ben plans to attend a four-year college majoring in engineering. He is looking at some excellent schools including Tufts, Boston University, Naval Academy, West Point and Northeastern University. Ben's warm, compassionate personality along with his strong work ethic and desire to succeed certainly points to nothing but success in his future. I am sure you all join me in wishing him nothing but triumph in all his future endeavors. Good Luck Ben! 🍀

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR'S REPORT
SCOTT MOREAU

Athletic Director's Report: The 2010-11 season was one of the most successful we've had in recent memory. Four of our teams won league championships and 25 out of 27 teams qualified for the post season.

Individually we had 15 Boston Globe/Herald All Scholastic selections, 13 individual state champions, 4 league players of the year and 7 of our coaches were recognized as coaches of the year. There were 1484 participants and over 50 programs offered with an overall varsity record of 277-144-15.

The 2012-13 season has begun and participation numbers in all of our programs is very strong. The coaches and athletes have been preparing for months and are ready for the season. Along with competing full time on the athletic fields and courts, all of our teams will be involved in community service projects organized by the captains of each program. Please look for some of their projects throughout the fall, it's always nice to see our student athletes engaged in positive endeavors outside of athletics.

It's an exciting time of year for high school athletics and we look forward to seeing all of our community supporters at the events along the way.

We couldn't do it without you!

I regret to inform you that our classmate, Edgar P. George, died on June 12, 2012; his two sons, Gary and Dave at his side. We all knew who Edgar was. He was the cheerful, outgoing student who caught everybody's attention. Of course, we all also remember him starring in both football and baseball. In later years he was elected to the CHS Hall of Fame based on his years at CHS and his many contributions afterwards. Following graduation from CHS, he and Shirley MacLean, another graduate of the Class of 1937, married. As youngsters they lived next door to each other in the Westlands, and remained close friends throughout high school. Theirs is the love story of the century as there was no one else for them but each other and they eventually married, enjoying a lifetime together. Ed served in the U.S. Army Air Corps as a link trainer flight simulator instructor during World War II. He worked for John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Co., retiring as a V.P. in 1976 after 38 years of service. He was also sports editor of the Chelmsford

CLASS OF 1937 - FLORIDA, JULY 2012.

Grandson and great-grandchildren visit "Grammy Dot" (LeClair) ('37) Mackey and grandparents Bob ('63) and Barbara Mackey. L to R: Kristan with Caiden, Dillon, (Kristan & Dillon are twins), mom Lisa, Anij, Scott Mackey ('93), Analise, Brittany

Newsweekly for a few years and a charter officer of the Chelmsford Little League when it was founded. He was a member of All Saints Episcopal Church in Chelmsford, a Chelmsford selectman for six years, and a member of the Chelmsford Finance Board. Ed and Shirley moved to Daytona Beach FL in 1976 where Ed continued to be active in church activities. With Shirley as hostess, he organized and ran charter bus trips by "Ed George Bus Tours." Ed loved golfing and he had a four handicap. In 2001, Ed and Shirley moved to Kennebunk ME to be closer to their boys, Gary and Dave. Gary and Dave: we the class of 1937, sympathize with your loss. You had two beautiful parents.

Some "brighter" notes to share:

It was a big surprise (to me) when eight guests arrived from NM in July at the home in SC where I live with my son and his wife, Bob and Barbara (Kimball) Mackey, both Class of 1963. Bob's son, Scott, Class of 1993, was the first to make an appearance. They appeared one-by-one and I was overjoyed and overwhelmed, not having seen my grandson and six great-grandchildren in several years. They were all ages down to nine months and, yes, in case you're wondering, they stayed at a nearby hotel! They had driven straight through in two cars and, after a wonderful stay, returned the same way. They visited with us and took in all the sights that Myrtle Beach and its surroundings have to offer and then returned to NM the same way they came, four to a car. I know they had a good time because the 9-yr-old kept repeating on her way out to the car, "I want to stay."

A few weeks later, grandson Peter Mackey, Class of 1986, arrived from Wakefield, RI with his wife and their two daughters. They visited with me while Bob and Barbara attended the 20th Engineer Brigade Vietnam Reunion in Rockford, IL. Other friends from the Class of 1963 will be visiting in October but it will be early in the New Year before I see my granddaughter, Becky (Mackey) Morgan, Class of 1989, and her children, Haleigh and Austin (if he doesn't have to stay back home for football practice).

Affectionately to my classmates, Dot

Our sympathies go out to Luenna Vondal ('41) Bergen on the death of her sister Abby Vondal ('47) Kiberd. (See page 58.) I haven't heard from any of my classmates. Hope you are all O.K.

I had a great Birthday celebration in August; my children were there along with two of my grandchildren including Alex Forman ('08), son of Sarah Partridge ('74) Forman and her husband Steve. Alex graduated in May 2012 from Quinnipiac University in Connecticut. Alex is working in Public Relations in Connecticut. Also at my celebration was my youngest grandchild, Marina Partridge, daughter of Elizabeth Partridge ('80). She is a senior in high school this year in Tyngsboro.

I am glad the hot weather is on its way out. I like the fall best.

I've spent my summer visiting my friends in nursing homes and working for a politician.

I hope you all have wonderful holidays -Thanksgiving and Christmas. - Mary Hope everyone has had a great summer! Edna and I have spent most of the last few months of our little hide-away at Hampton Beach. We have a trailer which we leave there year-round. We open it in May and close it in the fall. During the summer months we tend to treat it as a second home, coming down long enough to take care of the laundry and pick up the mail. I was most happy on one of my most recent mail checks to find a note from Ernie Kisley. Not only was it great to hear from him, but it gave me a reason to put something other than my name and address in the CHS Class News. He wrote as follows:

"Hi Ray . . . after procrastinating for so many years, thought it is time to drop a line to you and remaining class members from hot and sunny FL. It has been 30 years since retiring from New England Tel & Tel and moving to the city of Ocala. We enjoy the area very much. Estelle and I recently celebrated our 60th wedding anniversary with a stay at the Plaza Resort and Spa, and a time with family and friends. Haven't been back to New England for four years. Miss visits with old friend Johnny Dulgarian, but still keep in touch. Our daughter's family lives close by so we get to see the grandkids often. They both swim competitively with the Florida Marlins. My sister Jean ('37) is well and maintains a home in Sun City Center. It's hard to imagine that 68 years have elapsed since leaving good old CHS. Hope you and your family are well. Regards and best wishes for all."

Ernie's address is 5165 SE 37th Ave., Oak Hollow FL 34480 if you would like to get in touch with him.

Speaking of getting in touch, I would like to update the list of addresses that I have for the remaining members of our class. The list that I have goes back to our last reunion. I would appreciate hearing from each of you to let us know how you are doing and to make sure that we have your current address. If you would prefer to use e-mail, my address is rayjudge@comcast.net.

Well, we're into September and I need to head back to the beach to start closing up. Hope you're all well and I'll catch ya later! - Ray

We have spent the summer in the WV, mountains, but will return to Virginia before the first snow falls. The fall colors are beautiful here and the maple trees are showing their autumn reds and golds.

Living in two places sometimes is complicated. Phyllis (Palmgren) Almgren recently called from California. She had sent me a letter but it was returned. Our phone chat was a chance to catch up on her news. One of her neighbors hosted a party for Phyllis' 80th birthday. It sounded like a lovely affair held in the garden surrounding the swimming pool. Both her son and daughter and their families attended. Belated happy 80th Phyllis!

I talked to classmate Irene (Hulslander) Hurst recently. She has been taking care of her husband, Harold 24/7. Their children and families all live close by in Spring Hill, FL. One of his sons has taken over Harold's auto repair business. Their ten great-grandchildren (plus one on the way) bring them lots of joy.

Also had a chat with Georgia Spanos. She and Johnny are fine. Their son Mike has taken over the florist business. Georgia also has a gallery over the shop where she and local artists exhibit their paintings. It's called "The Gallery at Floral Arts." Their four sons and families all live near them in Chelmsford, along with their eleven grandchildren, except for one granddaughter who moved to CA and who works in a florist shop!

It's great hearing about these families who live close together and have the next generation taking over the businesses. That's the way it used to be in the good old days. My dad was the third generation to have the Wilder Grain Company. However the big co-operatives (Southern States, etc.) made it hard for the private, small companies to compete.

My sister, Nancy (Wilder) Dziczek '53, sent a newspaper article about Charles L. Cashin III. He is a Captain of a new Coast Guard vessel. Valerie must be very proud of her son and we know Charlie would have been too.

Nancy also sent the obituary of our classmate Louise (Peverill) Woodbury. Louise died in June, 2012 in Bradenton FL. She had been a secretary for Raytheon for 25 years. She was a pianist, a poet, and a songwriter. Louise is survived by her five children and their spouses, 11 grandchildren, and 12 great-grandchildren. Her husband George preceded her in death. Our condolences go to her family.

Our 65th reunion will be coming up in two short years. If any of you would like to help plan for it, please let me know. It's not too early to start thinking about when and where. Give me a call with your ideas. My Virginia number is (434) 964 -9059. I'd love to hear from you. Stay well and happy! - Skip

From your class agent, Jack Costello: "This article is being sent early to the Lion's Pride as I will be on vacation in Las Vegas. Judy and I have been going there for close to twenty years and have been in most of the hotels but not always as guests.

Many of the old hotels, including say the Mirage, have rooms that would be small compared to the newer hotels. We now have been staying at the Palazzo Hotel which is a newer building to the Venetian. The difference between them is one has the canals and many shops and restaurants making it more like a shopping mall. The Palazzo has very few restaurants and shops. Both have larger rooms than the older hotels like the Mirage. The ones we have used are about 47 feet long and 20 feet wide, with a ten by ten bathroom.

This trip we are trying something different by avoiding the sometime crowd of people checking in and out by taking advantage of a special area on the 23rd floor that has both check-in and out as well as a lounge with breakfast and some kind of brunch in the afternoon. The price of the room covers all the amenities usually charged separately on the other floors.

We usually book with the hotel early in the year and secure our airline tickets. Judy checks the hotel periodically to see if the rate has gone up or down. If it has gone down, she calls and our room rate is charged for the lower rate. So far it has dropped almost $100 per day.

I will give you my opinion in the January as to what I think of floor twenty three." - Jack Fellow Golden CHS Alumni Classmates -- there are only 372 days left. Left to what, you say? Well, of course it's the 60th reunion of the Chelmsford High class of 1953 -- and rumor has it that is going to be one the greatest events for elder Americans ever held in Tyngsboro, Massachusetts. Yes, folks - deny it or not, we are - with ages in the upper 70's - among today's elders. But as elders we have 2 choices: as of today there are 64 of us eligible to attend this event. There are those among us who will pull our lap blanket over our feet and sit home and watch the boob tube, like every other night. These are the ones who were old before their time; they were pretty old when they we 50! We have to forget them - they are over the hill. BUT, on other side, there are the young 70's of our group, the ones who are still going out and playing bingo, skiing or fishing, playing golf or tennis, active in their communities, knowledgeable about current affairs and still vibrant citizens. Those are the ones who will travel hundreds (and in some cases thousands) of miles to be with us October 6, 2013, and think nothing about it. To them, it is just natural to want to be among old friends, remember the good times, hear about people's lives, meet spouses, and simply have a good time together among old friends. That is the profile of the person who will be with us: tall and slim or short and robust, but who cares? We're among friends! We are who we are, and, at our advanced age, should be damn proud of it.

One thing Win Dermody said to me in one of our conversations was that what disappoints him greatly is that some people, who live within an easy commute of Vesper Country Club, won't make any effort to be with us. Remember, folks, this is the last reunion! Our next one will perhaps be held at Sunny Acres Nursing Home. Incidentally, Vesper requires a $500 deposit to hold a date and I want to thank John Buzzell, Ellie (Gray) Gatenby, Win Dermody, Dick Wright and myself for writing checks for $100 each to make up the deposit. Thanks, guys!

Aside from the attendees, what are the other reasons you should attend? Well, Vesper Country Club is one of the finest eating places in the greater-Lowell area. Other CHS classes who have used their facilities have nothing but praise for the food. We have chosen a brunch/dinner menu with waffles with strawberries and whipped cream, eggs, too, as well as potatoes, vegetables, salad, baked haddock and chicken breast with sage stuffing (a Vesper special). And, you have to come for the CAKE -- a reunion cake made especially for us.

What else is going to happen? Out of our respect, we will recognize our 28 deceased classmates; there will be several announcements and awards; we have commissioned a firm to develop a very special piece of memorabilia that will be only distributed to classmate attendees. Then, with yours truly as your MC, there will be surprises galore - some like we had at the last reunion and several complimentary items we've dreamed up in the past 5 years.

The cost? $60/attendee. With 372 days left, that's about 40 weeks - so can you afford to put away in a reunion fund, less than $2.00 a week ($4.00 a week if you are going to invite your spouse or significant other) to pay for your ticket? I hope so. Our committee includes Nancy (Wilder) Dziczek (who right now can't afford to spend a lot of time with us because of family sickness), but Dick and Binki Wright and my wife, Ruth, and I have picked up the slack and we will move ahead smoothly and have a memorable reunion. We review everything we do with Nancy, though, because of the breadth of experience with our class that she brings to the group. We're working hard and think it will show in the product we deliver on October 6, 2013.

SYMPATHY: Our thoughts and prayers are with the Morrow family and Classmate Pete whose dad recently passed.

CLASSMATE SNAPSHOTS: The two we introduce this month are interesting contrasts: the first, Franklin Warren, represents a person who stayed in Chelmsford on property that had been in his family since 1699. The other is one of our most active and popular classmates, Ellie (Gray) Gatenby, who followed her husband of 55 years in his corporate life, finally landing and settling for good in the state of Virginia. Ellie chose to introduce us to her life through a letter to her CHS 1953 classmates - I include it here as submitted.

CLASSMATE SNAPSHOT:
FRANKLIN WARREN
This Class Agent's lasting memory of Franklin Warren was the time, in one of the Warren's farm outer buildings, Franklin, John Buzzell and I (maybe others, too, but I forget) were decorating the bed of the Warren's 1952 Ford Truck that became our float in a Chelmsford Booster Club's parade. Needless to say that it was well into the night before we finished. And, do you remember that Irene Oczowski was Queen of our float?

I asked Franklin the significance of his middle name --Emerson -- and found out that it was a family name and that he and his sister, Martha ('50) can trace their family lineage back to the brother of Ralph Waldo Emerson, who lived in Concord.

The Warren farm today runs from Boston Road all the way to Acton Road -- a total of 56 acres. Originally when it was established as a farm by Dr. Joseph Warren in 1699 (the acreage totaled 200 acres (it was a wedding present for him and his wife.) The Warren Farm was a fully operational farm when we were in high school, with about 20 milk-producing cows, 2000 leghorn chickens, pigs and a team of horses. Today the farm produces only hay which is baled and sold. Franklin lives at 77 Boston Road, in the same house where he grew up, and his sister, Martha, lives at 91 Boston Road in a house built in 1889. Both these homes have always been in the Warren Family, and have never been sold.

Franklin married the girl down the street - Mary Lewis - (CHS Class of 1956). They have been married for 53 years and have four children --2 boys and 2 girls-- and are now grandparents of Abigail Sarah and Emily Rachel. When Franklin graduated CHS he immediately began working full time on his dad's farm. Franklin's dad, Edwin, was a farm product agent for Eastern States including cattle and chicken grains. On a trip to the Waltham Eastern States Office, Franklin was offered a job as a truck driver, delivering their products. The job paid $1.10/hour - a heck of a lot more than his dad was paying him-- and Franklin jumped at it. 33 years later, he retired. During these years Franklin moved from truck driver into management positions with the company, running some of their offices including the one in South Chelmsford. He even temporarily moved himself and his family west for 3 years to manage their Westfield, MA office. Today Eastern States has been purchased and their products are sold under the Agway banner. In 1986 the Town of Chelmsford recruited Franklin for Animal Control Officer, and he filled that role until 2006, when, after 20 years on the job, he retired (again).

For relaxation and time away from the farm, Franklin and Mary were members of the Covered Wagon Travel Trailer Club offering excursions five times a year. Fellow classmate, Fred Bovill (now deceased) and his wife were also members of this Club.

A few years ago the Warrens agreed to allow Chelmsford Minutemen to re-enact a colonial battle on their fields, welcoming the soldiers as well spectators. Franklin and Mary are true Yankees --rejecting technology in any form except for a telephone answering machine. However, if you were selecting a CHS couple to be close friends with, Franklin and Mary would, I am sure, be tops on your list. They are simply good people, good citizens, and good Americans.

CLASSMATE SNAPSHOT:
ELEANOR (GRAY) GATENBY
"Hello CHS Classmates, 1953!

In one sense, the nearly sixty years that have passed since we left one another to forge an adult life of our own seems a very long time. And it has been a long time when one considers that during those years man has walked on the moon, the Internet arrived, and 9/11 showered a dose of reality on all of us. But then, put the mind in reverse and the memories rush back and time melts away, doesn't it? And right now, I am remembering you and our years together in the early 50s.

Today in 2012, I am a happy, healthy, and active 77 year old sitting at my computer writing this letter to you. So often, I think back to the 1/2 year typing course I took at CHS and realize how useful that has been, especially now with all the electronics toys at our disposal! How did we ever manage our young and social lives without iPhones, email, and Facebook? I admit, I'm captivated by it all, but cannot give up the morning newspaper or the feel of a real book in my hands!

My husband of 55 years, Art Gatenby - you remember him, don't you? - has been my constant companion since we met at a roller skating party co-sponsored by CHS and Westford Academy! I was the Social Chairman of our student body then and he was President at WA. Ironically, the Lowell Sun published a photo of the committee, thus commemorating the night we met back in March of 1951. We married in 1957 after my four years at Colby College and his graduation from Rensselaer plus two years in the Navy. It was our wonderful teacher and class advisor, Christine Booth, who introduced me to Colby, her Alma Mater. We stayed in touch through the years and she knew how much it meant to me that she cared enough to point me in a good direction.

Together, Art and I never lived in New England, but moved south, first to the New York City area where I taught History and English to 8th graders in Teaneck, NJ. Our daughter Jennifer was born there and when she was three we moved farther south to Virginia when Booz, Allen, and Hamilton moved us permanently to the Washington, DC area. We have been in Fairfax, VA (just 10 miles west of DC) for 46 great years. It is home for us now. Jill and David were born in Virginia and later on, all three of our kids attended Virginia colleges. As you might expect, all are married and they have given us five delightful grandkids, ages 8,7,6,5, and 2! We are fortunate to have Jill and family right here in our neighborhood, Jeni not far away in MD, and Dave and family in CT.

Now that our kids are launched and busy with their growing families, Art and I have the luxury to pretty much do what ever we choose to do. We own a company, CSC Scientific, which manufactures and distributes laboratory test equipment - instruments that measure moisture, particle size and surface tension. Visit us on the web at www.cscscientific.com. Art is still very much involved with the company and I make cameo appearances from time to time to do the payroll and HR stuff! But for fun, we play golf. Tennis came first, but a knee replacement put the kibosh on that, so I took up golf at 60 and have become addicted. I now play competitive team golf for our club and my fifteen minutes of fame are the three holes-in-one I have had. Art and I are snowbirds, heading south or west for two months in the wintertime. Everything Art needs to run the company is on the Internet and I cannot see 'retirement' in our near future. He is having way too much fun writing blogs, twitters, and demo videos for the company web site.

I would love to babble on about authors I read, philosophies I share, music I love - all the things that make me, me, but already this has become way too long for what Roy has asked for. I hope to see you in 2013 for our 60th reunion. Whew!"
- Ellie

Hi everyone, hope all of you are enjoying our beautiful summer. Last Tuesday the girls met at Princeton Station for lunch and a mini reunion. Marcia Bell came up from Florida for a visit and stayed with Carol Cagiano. They met us there, joining Pat Ralls, Lillian Morrow, Pat Dinigan, Joy Enis, Carol Christenson, Gladys McCoy, Joan Staveley, Theresa Patenaude, and me. After leaving the restaurant, we came back to my house and sat in our backyard and talked and joked until late in the afternoon. I've said this before, "we are truly blessed to still be friends, some of us even from grammar school and, of course, all of us from high school." Getting together always brings back great memories. Hope we can continue to do this for many, many more years.

Well here we are almost the end of August and fall will be here before we know it. Joe and I took a trip to Gilford NH for a few days a few weeks ago. While we were there we stopped at Sawyer's, Larry and Patie Litchfield's restaurant. We had a great meal and talked with Larry for a bit. It was wonderful to hear that, in spite of the slow economy, business is doing well.

This will be all for now. How about sending me news once in a while? Would love hearing from my classmates.

Until then, stay happy and healthy.
-Claire

River Boat Cruise---

On June 3, 2012, Wendell and Reba Luke flew into Amsterdam where they spent a couple of days. They visited both the Van Gogh and Rijks museums, and Anne Frank's House. Took boat tours on the canals, toured old windmills to see the workings, and walked through the flower markets. On June 6th they embarked on the River Boat Cruise where they cruised to Cologne. Along the way and all through the trip, they saw lots of cathedrals, old castles and watch towers. They also passed the famous Rock of Lorelei. Wendell wrote that they journeyed through the spectacular Rhine Gorge. At Rudesheim, they visited a unique museum of mechanical musical instruments, part of which was in a cave. From the Rhine they crossed by way of the Main River and then the Main-Danube Canal to the Danube. At Wurzburg they toured a remarkable Bishop's residence in a UNESCO World Heritage site. There was a large collection of various animals: white mules, lamas, goats, chickens, horses, etc. Kind of a working farm. The whole area along the rivers was dotted with vineyards high up the steep hillsides. The charming town of Bamberg straddles a river which is a playground for canoes and kayaks along with 18th century picturesque houses.

Onto Nuremberg where they visited the stark and dreary site of the Nazi rallying grounds and a powerful museum, built within the old buildings, that tells the tragic story of the Hitler regime.

Wendell also wrote that the Main-Danube Canal is a marvel with many sets of locks. At one stretch they passed through the successive sets that raised the water level 81 feet each. At another point the canal was built over a major highway so they looked down upon the passing traffic. They stopped in Regensberg where there are ruins of an old Roman Fort. Then they passed into Austria at Passau-Linz. In Melk they toured a beautiful Benedictine Abbey that dominates the town from a hilltop setting. In Vienna they visited the lavish Hofburg Palace. They also took a side trip to Bratislava in Slovakia. Their trip ended in Budapest, Hungary with a massive Hilltop Castle, the beautiful Matthias church and many famous bridges.

Wendell notes that the service and food on the ship was superior. There were about 160 travelers and they met some enjoyable people. Each evening after the tours there was entertainment from the local folks sharing native arts and customs. Their cabin had a full floor to ceiling slider so they could enjoy the scenery all along the cruise.

Thank you Wendell for sharing. For those of your classmates who will never enjoy a fantastic River Boat Cruise, you gave us a wonderful picturesque video in our minds of you journey.

Celebration---

Oh! How wonderful that on March 31, 2012, Dan Pushee and Bonnie Hardiman were married in a morning ceremony in the outside gazebo at the Gulf Lake Baptist Church in Crystal River, FL. The reception brunch for family and friends who came from near and far, GA, MA, KS, VA and FL was held at their home in Crystal River FL. The marriage unites Bonnie's family 4 children and 6 great grand children and Dan's family of 4 children, 15 grand children and 2 great grand children. They are truly blessed. Then in the spring the Citrus County Chamber of Commerce gave out a Chamber Champion Award to Dan and gave the Ambassador of the Year award to Bonnie. Congratulations to both for a job well done. Dan and Bonnie's new address is 235 N. Pompeo Ave. Crystal River FL 34429

Out-and-about---

This past April, Bill and Coppy Vennard of Columbia MD, along with two of their long time friends, Wade and Faye spent a week's vacation in the nation's oldest city, St. Augustine, FL. They had a great time playing tourist, including a narrated trolley tour ride throughout the city's narrow streets, much walking and investigating the fascinating St Augustine "Old Town", along with lots of great food and much trinket buying. Other highlights were the Castillo de San Marcos the oldest Fort and a Scenic Boat Cruise, along the water front on the beautiful Matanzas Bay looking out towards the blue Atlantic Ocean. Mid week they drove over the Bridge of Lions, to meet up with Chuck and me. We love being tour guides and showing off Anastasia Island AKA St. Augustine Beach with 42 miles of sun, sand, and fun. Our first stop was the St. Augustine 1880 Lighthouse. Next was the Pier and Pavilion, then we drove onto the beach for a great view of the surf. Traveling on we went to Fort Matanzas National Park and inlet. Enjoyed a great lunch and departed to rest up for a great dinner. Two of my neighbors joined our group along with Eileen (Harrington) Collomb of St Augustine. That made a total of seven of us. We all had so much in common. It was a fantastic evening with warm and fuzzy feelings.

Chuck and Joan McCarthy of Davenport, FL, flew up to Boston for their annual 4th of July celebration on the Chelmsford Common. While in town they took advantage of the opportunity to visit with his sister Mary (McCarthy) (56) St. Hilaire, his brother Philip (Red) (53) McCarthy and his daughter Donna and her family.

Had a nice phone visit from Betty (Morrison) Butler of Orlando FL in July. She was in Rockaway Beach MO where she spends her summers to be near her son and his family. She was busy helping her son with the remodeling of his house. Betty took in many shows in Branson where she had lots to choose from. She wanted classmates to know it is not all Country Western. For the 4th of July she spent time with her friends in OH on Lake Erie.

We extend our condolences to Harvey Miller whose wife Florence passed away on February 16, 2012.

Around-and-about---

At the end of April, Gertrude (Smith) Allaby's granddaughter Becky was married to a firefighter. Gertrude said the wedding ceremony was just beautiful. The cake was like a firehouse and on the top of the cake was a fireman holding his bride Becky in his arms. It was a grand reception. Becky had seven bridesmaids.

On August 9, 2012, Paul and Eileen (Cummings)('56) Peterson flew out to Amsterdam and connected with big brother Douglas 'Bud' ('47) and his companion, where they all embarked on a cruise to the Baltics, Scandinavia, Russia, Germany, Denmark etc. They all had been talking about doing this adventure for years and now it has come to pass. Paul said they all had a fantastic time.

While vacationing in Bretton Woods, NH on August 8, 2012, Chuck and I got together with some of the gang, Ron Taylor, Judy Harrington ('60) Leary, Carol (Abrahamson) Bovill, Tom and Barbara Bovill and of course Larry and his wife Patie at Sawyer's, Larry Litchfield's Dairy Bar and Restaurant. They serve great lobster and of course Patie's home made ice cream. And again on August 14th some of us embarked on the M/S Mount Washington at Weirs Beach, NH, for a cruise on Lake Winnepesaukee. For those who could not make the two events, we missed you. Check out the photos.

75th Birthday Celebrations---

In June Jerry Greska and Carol (French) Miller went for a lovely cruise on the Mt Washington on Lake Winnepesaukee in NH and then had dinner at Hart's Turkey Farm in Meredith, NH with friends to celebrate. In July I received an email from Gay McEvoy to say Bob had a wonderful day of celebration with his children and grandchildren at their son's home in Dunstable. Dick Burt's 75th was a very pleasant one. He and Priscilla drove down to Woodman's in Essex for fried clams. Yum Yum! Priscilla reminded Dick that the last time they were there was on their second date - 47 years ago. Like Dick said, times flies by when you're whooping it up and having fun. This past July, Eileen (Harrington) Collomb flew to Baltimore to celebrate her 75th with her two sons and grandson Gary. Also joining them were her Colorado daughter and her grands Cooper and Owen. They all had a very busy week but managed to take in the Baltimore Zoo. Larry Litchfield celebrated his 75th with friends and family, even though he and Patie were busy with their restaurant opening for the summer. In August, Bill Vennard celebrated with the Vennard Clan on the Outer Banks NC. Also celebrating her 75th was Hazel (Parks) Thompson. Again I hope I didn't miss a 75th between May and August, let me know if I did.

Talked again to Gertrude 'Gigi' (Long) Kelleher of Wilmington DE who had just finished talking to Donna (Provencal) Gavin of Scarborough ME. Gigi said they are both doing well. This past winter Dick Burt traveled to Palm Springs and then to Highlands Ranch CO to visit with his son Rick ('91) and his family. Then in August they all returned for a visit with Dick and Pricilla and to attend a wedding. Carol Bovill went on a day trip to Portland, ME in July with the Moultonborough Seniors on a tour to Portland ME and embarked on a ferry to Cabbage Island for a clam bake. Ron Taylor could be seen in Harpswell ME for a weekend in July visiting with his daughter Susan. Earl and Bunny Guilmette had a busy summer with their family. Tom and Barbara Bovill had a busy summer tending to their garden. They were only too happy to share some of their real tomatoes and cukes with us. Thank you guys, they were great.

Up-and-coming event---

Our eighth annual FL reunion will be held in February or March, 2013, so mark your calendars. Invitations are extended to all CHS classes living in or visiting FL. Those in the group include Beth (Simpson) McHugh, Ann Marie (Sehlstedt) Winkowski, Kay (Morrow) Stidsen, Helen (Poplewell) Hanafin, Berta (Jones) Erickson, and myself. These are impromptu get-togethers so whoever's available goes. Again, anyone is welcome to join us.

Kathy sent in the news (which follows) of the Class Of '57 get-together at Hampton Beach:

On July 25, 2012, Ralph and Carmen Nickerson had a get together at their home at Hampton Beach, with Carolyn (Howell), Jack and Pam Flavell, Ron and Lettie Aubrey and I.

Jack and Pam have sold their property in Las Vegas and have moved back to MA and NH. They haven't decided where they want to live yet so they are enjoying the freedom of traveling and spending time with their children.

Ralph and Carmen treated us all to lobsters, so next year when you get an invite make sure you show up!!

Next time I hope to have pictures of our 55th reunion to be held on September 22nd. - Sandy Hi all, Yeah, she's back! Hopefully with a little more fun stuff to report!

As I write this it is Labor Day and sadly, the summer is close to over. A group of us from Chelmsford Village had a little last "Hurrah" party around the pool last night. It was fun and sad at the same time. There is a great bunch of people living here and these little gatherings are a good way of staying "young"especially since I was probably the oldest one in the group. Lots of laughs! I hope we have a winter similar to the last one which was not too bad as far as snowfall. As I get older less snow is better.

Bill O'Sullivan was here in August and Al and Audrey Egan had a cook-out at their home. Several of our classmates were there and it was really good to see them all. We had lots of laughs and enjoyed reminiscing about the old days at CHS. It's amazing how some things change and others stay the same. It was just like yesterday being with each other, although I'm sure some of us, me included, didn't remember some of the things that were talked about. Some of us had gone to school together since elementary school. Talking about our teachers and which of them we remembered the most. Really great time. Good food, good drinks and especially GOOD FRIENDS!!!! I have sent a picture to be included in this newsletter. Hope you can all figure out Who's Who!

I got an email from Phil Johnson which I am attaching to my newsletter. Hope you all enjoying reading it. Also, hope you take the hint and "SEND ME SOME NEWS"!!! Sorry, I had to do it!!

We will be meeting soon to plan our 55th reunion. REALLY!!! How did that happen? I was remiss in that in the last newsletter I said I would be sending an email with a questionnaire attached. I never did that and I apologize. We would like your input as to time of year, what you would like us to plan for activities, etc. We still need some of your email addresses, home addresses or phone numbers to reach you. Hopefully we will put together a questionnaire and get it out to as many of you as we can find. If you know of anyone who has moved or has a new email address please let me know. You can always call me or email me; I would love to hear from you. "I know, I said that already!!!"

'Til next time. Stay healthy, keep safe and enjoy life!!!! - Martha

"Dear Martha:

I wanted to email you earlier but things just kept getting in the way. About two weeks ago I had a pacemaker installed as my heart beat was at 30 and normal is 60. All is well and I feel like a million dollars.

Still really busy with www.projecthealingwaters.org. My region now has 10 programs in VA and WVA. We have all major centers with a program. It's a ton of work but the results are very rewarding when you see the good it does for the warriors and vets.

Our big news I wanted to share with all my classmates is my grandson, Matt Moser, will be coming to Tufts this fall in a pre-med program and will play baseball for the Jumbos. Matt is an excellent student as well as a very good baseball player.

Nancy and I are planning on coming up to see a game or two and also stop by and visit with our old friends. Now that Skip's is gone where do you meet for lunch?

We also just married off our first grandson, Eric Johnson, a civil engineer.

All of our families are doing great and we are blessed.

Hope this finds you healthy and please, say hello to all."

First of all, just today I learned that Jimmy Harvey died this week. I would like to extend my personal condolences to his twin Danny, as well as to all of the extended Harvey family. That was very sad news to read. I'm sure the rest of the class feels the same.

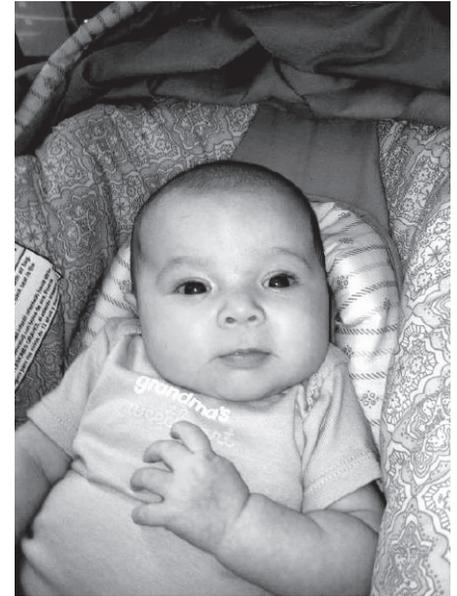

Just this week I saw Peter McHugh walking very quickly by All Saints'. He puts me to shame in his consistent quest for fitness. He also looked very handsome alongside his wife Linda (also lovely) and their son Brian in a picture posted from Brian's (CHS '96) wedding last week. Their son Kevin ('98) was married just a couple of weeks before that! Our best wishes to all the newlyweds!

Terry and I have a lovely new granddaughter named Paige Elizabeth LaRochelle! She was born on June 16, 2012 to Katie ('94) and Derek ('92) and joins Abby, who will most likely be CHS '26. About a month after Paige was born, Terry and I flew to Monterey CA, for a week's visit with 5 friends from all over (Baton Rouge, Chicago, and Waterloo, IA) to revisit the Defense Language Institute, where Terry had gone to school with the three guys and one of the wives. Look it up sometime and see how lovely this area of the west coast is! They're all coming here next summer!

I see Yvette (Lemire) and Dennis Hunt every once in awhile. They're both happily retired but staying very busy with various pursuits. Always a treat! I talked to Chris Urban at the polls the other day, and she says

Hi All! The summer is over... booooo! We got to spend much time with our family all together during this summer (starting on February 4, 2012 when our daughter, Kristen ('92) married Shaun Martin). Not sure I even put up a picture of the family at the wedding so will try to do one up. Our grandchildren are 13, 12 and 12 this summer. Is this fair that they grow so quickly? At the end of June we spent a week in a cottage in the Sebago Lake area of Maine called Blueberry Pond. I am not a lake lover so I ride around above it in the boat. I love the ocean but only got in a day or two of that. Then July 4th week we were all together for the parade and race in Chelmsford. Otherwise the summer was quiet. We are doing a family cruise with all of us going Royal Caribbean the week of Christmas. Cannot wait for that!

Cindy (Dupee) Gale has become a Grandmother with the birth of her daughter's new baby boy Wesley.

There is a picture here also of Soupy Campbell with his grandson. Steve Conrad and Rich Osberg have become grandparents too but the pictures are lost in file. :(

According to writings from Jane Diles in Facebook, she should be writing a travel guide! I think she is in the Bahamas now. Maybe she will email me -- of course this way would fill up my lines, to put in this Class News, ha ha - - or write her own blog for Facebook.

It is too difficult to write of passing of parents both emotionally and trying to keep track between each writing here. So it is twice as emotional trying to keep up with classmates who are much too young to pass yet. I will have to do it on recent memory and if you want me to put in more you can email me for the next edition.

Recently passed were Paul Baxendale and Andrew Slaney.

Following is the wonderful speech Pat (Tetreault) Stutz gave at the Alumni Hall of Fame Induction: "Thank you, Mr. Simonian. Good evening.

I have attended this event only once, 2 years ago, but have read about the induction of so many interesting people who have made significant contributions to the school, to organizations, communities and families. I am happy to share the stage with some of those deserving honorees tonight... congratulations to you. And some Hall of Famers are my classmates from the Class of 1966... Arnie, Danny, Dennis, Chaz, Joyce, Bill, Blair, and Sieb. I remember and respect you all.

And I, of course, am proud to be in any group that includes Mr. Don Boucher. His connection to our class, as our former teacher and advisor, and our current friend, is cherished by many of us. I recognize and thank my classmates and Mr. Boucher for having traveled to be here with us tonight especially the 16 who co-sponsored my nomination. And a special thank you to the selection committee who reviewed it. They acknowledged a health education career and school board service and my work in the prevention of HIV/AIDS. Those were the things that defined me for more than half my years. But it is also the events of the last dozen years that might have caught some attention too. Believe me, I am the first to admit that being the wife of the mayor of Banff and the mother of a world class athlete can bump up a resume.

And, then, heck, you kiss Kevin Costner a couple of times and people think you're a movie star. I have certainly worked with some stars... some very talented actors whose roles are noteworthy in the entertainment industry, and who, in the production process, always acknowledge that it is the combined ensemble of cast and crew who make a movie possible, meaningful and memorable. I am often asked who are my favorite actors to work with. Kevin Costner certainly for his desire to tell a meaningful story; Robert Duvall for sure with his effortless, yet poignant style. And Alan Alda and the lovely Gena Rowlands are pretty special. William Shatner and James Caan can be a challenge on set, but are entertaining. And one who was not my favorite, but did provide me with a most interesting experience was Farrah Fawcett. I was her stand-in on a Jackie Collins film. In hindsight, it seems that she was already somewhat ill and so I stood in for her more than I typically would have had to. She still had great hair. It was all about the hair.

In preparation for this event, I tried to find a common thread to my work and my leisure activities, and it is clear to me that being a Chelmsford High School cheerleader led to an emphasis on sport, health and entertainment. Under the direction of Mrs. Nancy Dean MacDougall, I had a wonderful three years. She was every bit as much a coach as the ones on the field or court. She emphasized a balance of athletics and academics, knowledge of the sports for which we cheered, and a ladylike deportment on and off the sidelines. I honor her tonight.

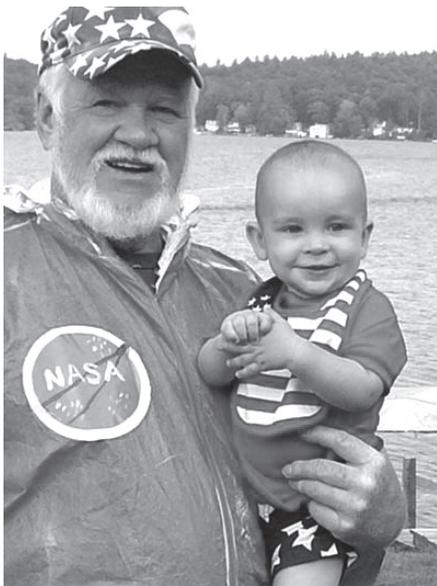

I am especially grateful to my family for sharing this event with me. My husband John seems to be enjoying this as much as I am. My sister Michelle, class of '65, and her husband Ken are here with their daughter and her fiancé, Jen and Sam, and my great niece Ashlee. I love you all. And the only one missing is our son Paul who is ski racing at North American finals and Canadian Championships in Quebec.

I will close now with the lyrics from a song by one of my favorite Canadian artists. His name is Johnny Reid and he sings,
*"I left my hometown years ago when the call of the highway found me.
But tonight I slowed down long enough to let all this love surround me."*
Thank you.- Patty Stultz

Hi All! We had quite a successful "40 Something Class Reunion" on Sat. Aug. 25, 11a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Alpine Grove in Hollis, NH. The brainchild of Ricky Pierce ('72) came to fruition with a little help from his friends Renee' (Marchand) Connolly ('74), Dawn Alexander ('74), Jaine Petrino-Marques and myself. Many contacts were made over Facebook and by word of mouth. Over 200 people came from classes spanning over ten years! '65-'75. The music was generously donated by the bands "Sierra" (whose musicians include CHS alums, Steve Lyons ('72), Dave Boisvert ('68) and Ernie Woessner ('69), who unfortunately was unable to attend) and "Stone Castle" (whose musicians include CHS alums, Linda Varnum ('68) her husband Jim Kauffman, Sean Horan ('72) and William "Buddy" Rogers ('67). Both bands were fantastic! Then "Merrimack" (a band that Ricky Pierce hired) played while we had a delicious meal. The weather was very cooperative and most people stayed outside in the pine grove to visit, while on occasion we would go inside for the air conditioning. The party continued for many of us at the "Block Party" at the N. Chelmsford American Legion. This may be something that could be done annually like the Friends of Dave Tousignant Reunion held in March. As we get older, I find it a lot of fun reminiscing of the glory days!

I sure would love to hear from you-

Class Notes

After “retiring” from her years with the US Air Force, Sonia Leach reports: “I’m now a member of the faculty of the School of Management at The University of Texas at Dallas. I’m teaching 2 undergrad and 2 grad courses this semester, plus I was hired as the Associate Director for the Operations Management and Supply Chain Management Programs. VERY busy.” Congratulations, Sonia!

Lots of educators in our class, among them Michael O’Keefe (CHS Social studies, baseball coach), Michelle (Gagnon) Dziadkowicz (Art at Marina High School, California), Abby (Bourne) Mann (reading in Orange County, California), Kristin Morris (Spanish at Stonybrook in Westford MA), Stephen McClure (Language arts at Parker Middle School) and Karen (Robillard) LoCoco (McCarthy Middle School) are all back to school.

Ever the world traveler, Nicole Pasternak made a trip to Iceland this past August for an incredible hiking adventure. Her photos are something out of a travelogue!

Hoping many will be able to make the trip back to the Chelmsford area for our 25th Reunion.

Calling all classmates!
As we bump into many people in both the “virtual” and real world, there is much excitement about reuniting for our 25th reunion. For those who have not been to a reunion yet, this will be a great chance to reconnect with a venue that is comfortable enough to have meaningful conversations, but plenty of room to dance, mix and mingle. We’re bringing in some fun aspects to capture the fun of the evening and the food is from a spectacular menu (no rubber chicken will be served). Those who have attended in the past will enjoy this more casual setting with areas to catch up, no sit-down dinner, and plenty of ways to enjoy our time together. While this is a relaxed reunion, the Barn at Gibbet Hill fits our class’s style. Check them out online at www.barnatgibbethill.com

Your ticket cost of $50 provides an evening of hot and cold appetizers, coffee and desserts, music, dancing and time to meet up with friends.

The nearest hotel is the Westford

Regency and we have a discounted rate there. We are also arranging for bus service ($10 round trip) to and from Gibbet Hill so that people have safe travel. Since the bus drivers cannot accept payment, you must purchase tickets through the class in advance.

Online ticket purchase is available (see information above) so buy your tickets now and you'll be set! Tickets will not be sold at the door.

CHELMSFORD HIGH SCHOOL

1962-1963 CHS BOYS BASKETBALL TEAM

The 1962-63 Chelmsford High School basketball team dropped an early season decision to Concord, then roared through twenty-one games, without defeat, to finish with twenty-three wins and one loss. During the Christmas vacation, the team journeyed to Berlin, New Hampshire, where they soundly defeated two New Hampshire teams, Gorham and Berlin.

On February twelfth, the Lions decided a strong North Andover team to secure the Lowell Suburban League title for the fourth year in succession. The team concluded league play unbeaten, and now Chelmsford owns a string of thirty-four straight league wins.

Due to their fine record, the Lions gained a berth in the Tech Tourney. They easily defeated and outclassed St. Clements of Somerville squad 85-50 in the first round. The second round found them rolling over Newton's Sacred Heart 41-16 and so qualifying to play in Boston Garden. In the semi-finals, the Lions whipped a strong Rockland team 70-46. The finals matched Chelmsford against the scrappy Plymouth Blue Eagles for the second year in a row. The Lions gained a 64-59 victory to capture the Eastern Massachusetts Class C Championship for the first time in twelve years.

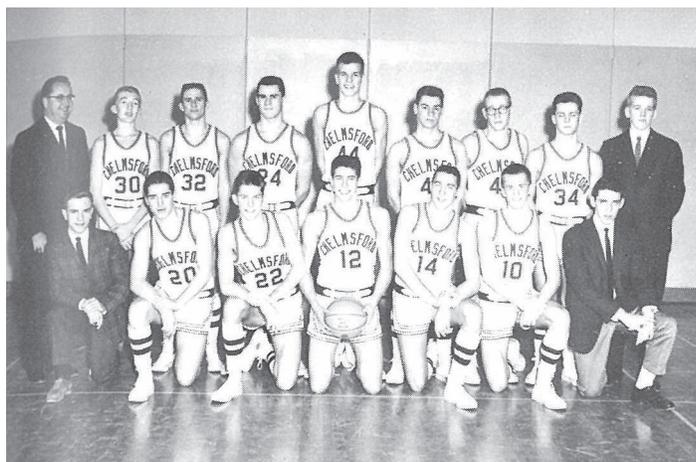

The quality of Chelmsford ballplaying pointed out the excellent coaching of Mr. Henry P. McCarthy, who has done an outstanding job of teaching the boys basketball and sportsmanship.

All through the season, the Lions played outstanding ball and were acclaimed throughout the state. Led by the fabulous Hank Brown, they were one of the most formidable fives in the New England area. Brown, noted for his ability to "stuff" the ball, was hailed by many for both his tremendous defensive and offensive work. He was heralded as "Athlete of the Year" by the Lowell Sun and later was picked the "Athlete of the Week" by the Boston Herald for his Tech Tourney play.

Our congratulations to the coach and team for their double-championship year.

Best wishes for a successful season to Captain-elect Dick Molloy and next year's Lions.

Performing Arts Center, Chelmsford High School

IN THE ARTS

By Christina Whittlesey

Well, we have been back to school for just a couple of weeks, but the Fine and Performing Arts faculty and students are in full swing after a busy summer!

For two weeks this summer, a dozen Chelmsford middle and high school flute players spent time together as a section and honing their skills on their instruments. The second annual "Flute Ensemble Extravaganza" summer flute camp was held at Chelmsford High School, and gave students a unique opportunity to play music in a setting designed just for flute ensemble, or as they call it, "flute choir."

Ranging in grades from 5-12, the students were given a pile of brand new music, scale sheets, and sight-reading exercises. They diligently worked together in two levels (one beginner ensemble, and one intermediate ensemble) to rehearse music as a small chamber ensemble. This type of playing is especially different from what they experience during the school year when they are always playing in a band setting with many other instruments and players creating sound around them. This gave them the chance to fine tune skills specific to the flute, such as how to produce a great sound, how to hold the instrument properly, how to breathe properly, and how their sounds can blend together to create a beautiful harmonious sound as a group.

Director Allison Lacasse, who founded the camp, says that this is one of her favorite two weeks of the year. A flutist herself, she is passionate about giving the children a chance to bond together as a little "flute family," and to spend some time with the students in a strictly flute-playing setting. Lacasse states that "Having a passion for your instrument is so important as a young musician, and this camp gives everyone involved a chance to improve, grow, learn, and have fun in a smaller learning environment." There are even two high school students who volunteered their time at the camp and had the opportunity to lend their advice and get some teaching experience in. "This is why music-making is so fun—there are bonds being made among students who may not have even met each other if it were not for the camp," said Lacasse.

The students put on a casual concert for their families at the culmination of the camp. Both ensembles performed their own flute choir pieces and ended with a grand finale of "Flute Camp Canon," their own version of Pachelbel's "Canon in D Major."

Also this summer, CHS Student Elizabeth Sperry placed third in the National Flute Association high school competition in Las Vegas, Nevada. Elizabeth is currently a member of the CHS Band, the CHS Student-led Symphony Orchestra, and the CPS All-Town Band, and has volunteered her time working in the Chelmsford Community Education "Summer Flute Camp" for the past 2 years. She also performs in the award-winning pit band for CHS musical productions.

Outside of Chelmsford, Elizabeth is a private student of Judy Grant, director of the Boston Flute Academy. Elizabeth has a long list of credits and accomplishments in her 6 short years of studying. At 11, she placed 3rd in the New England String competition. At 12, she won the NYO solo competition. Several times, she placed first in Junior and Senior Districts, as well as the Massachusetts Music Educator's Association All-State Festival. Elizabeth performed on "From The Top" last fall and recently toured Europe with the Boston Youth Orchestra. Elizabeth enjoys the opportunity to study with and receive Master classes from some of the finest flutists in the Nation.

When asked what Ms. Sperry would recommend to Chelmsford music students, she encourages them to "Surround yourselves with people that encourage you to improve your skills and who will help you to reach your maximum potential." Chelmsford is honored to have produced one of the finest high school flutists in our country, and a most wonderful role model for all of our Chelmsford music students. She is living proof that with diligence, good training, and perseverance, any student can reach their aspirations and dreams.

The Music Department hosted our 5th Annual Band Camp, Directed by CHS Director of Bands Matthew Sexauer. If you would like a "behind-the-scenes" peek at Band Camp, I invite you to visit our Fine and Performing Arts Department Webpage for

The band looks and sounds great this year with our biggest number of students that we've had in as many years as we can remember. The students are excited to be performing a field show this year featuring the music of Walt Disney World's park entertainment fireworks shows (Fantasmic, Illuminations, and When You Wish Upon a Star). Of course, this is all part of the build-up for this April's DISNEY TRIP by the CHS Band and Orchestra!

All of our ensemble directors are crafting their winter concerts and theatrical productions, all of which promise to continue the tradition of high-caliber work here in Chelmsford. I hope you will be able to join us at some upcoming events:

Oct. 5-7 Theater Guild Production:
All My Sons

Nov. 15-17 Theater Guild

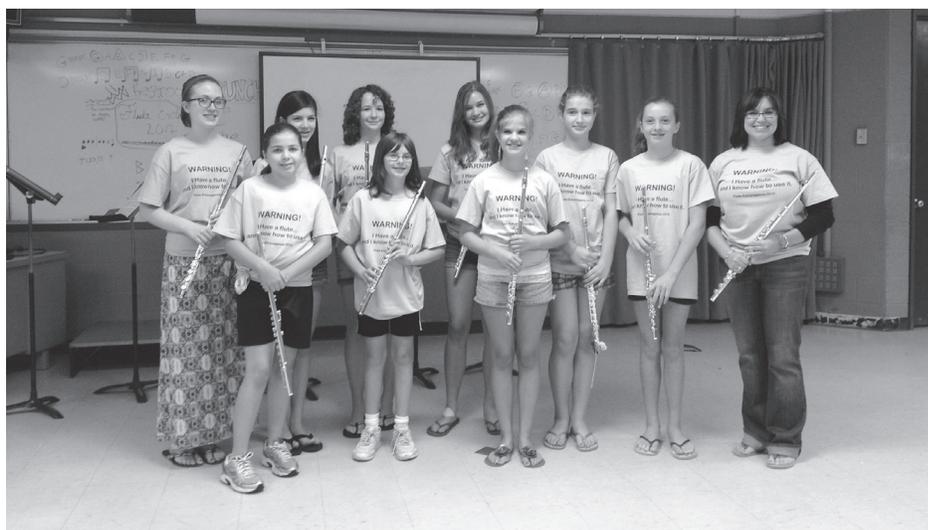

Production: Inherit the Wind

Dec. 12 Winter Concert at the PAC

Dec. 14 All-Town Wind Ensemble at the PAC

As we do every year, we are also looking forward to the Boston Globe Art Show and many other art competitions and exhibitions, Junior and Senior Districts, All-State, MICCA, theatrical competitions, and other exciting opportunities for our students to explore possibilities within the Arts.

We are fortunate to have such a supportive community and school system for the Arts, and the faculty and I look forward to another great year in 2012-2013.

FINE AND PERFORMING ARTS REPORT

CHS Art Student Creates New Mural

Over the summer, CHS Senior and A.P. Art Student Emily Moreau created a beautiful “window” mural in the Principal’s Secretary office at the High School. This mural is a “trompe l’oeil,” which is French for an artwork that fools the eye. Her realistic and convincing mural appears to open up the cinder block wall through a window that reveals the CHS front hallway on the other side.

Emily plans to study art for a future career when she graduates from CHS.

❖ FOURTEENTH ANNUAL ❖

SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS NIGHT

By Sandie Taylor ('69)

The Finest Example of Alumni Giving Back

The attire of the evening ranged from stunning sun dresses and striking red suede heels to uniforms and running shoes sported by students who had rushed from their games just in time to accept their scholarships at the Chelmsford High School Alumni Association Fourteenth Annual Awards Night last May 14th in the Performing Arts Center. By the evening's end, 114 CHSAA scholarships had been awarded to deserving members of the Class of 2012, as well as to a number of alumni. This increases the total number of CHSAA scholarships that have been awarded to CHS graduates over the last twenty years to an amazing 1,015.

Since 1991 when $350 scholarships were awarded to two seniors, the CHSAA has given out over half a million dollars in scholarships to CHS graduates. Today "the CHSAA endowment has grown to well above the one million dollar mark on its way to two million," shared proud association President and MC of the evening Terry McSheehy ('64). Executive Director George Simonian reminded the audience, that the endowment had come a long way since its inception in 1990 when George Parkhurst ('32) had donated $1000 to begin the endowment concept. With excitement in his voice, McSheehy went on to say, "What a thrill this is for all of us tonight! The driving principle of the CHSAA is that the alumni of CHS give something back. Tonight is the finest example of that."

In Principal Anne O'Bryant's ('71) welcoming remarks, she praised the presenters and the benefactors for giving back and for supporting CHS students and graduates. She noted that many of the scholarships had been established in the names of beloved teachers, students, faculty, staff and community members. Their memories will live on forever as the CHSAA continues year after year to award scholarships in their names. To the recipients, she said, "I hope that you appreciate what your community has done for you, and I hope that you, too, will one day give back."

A lively and exceptionally spirited group of CHS students enthusiastically cheered and applauded as each of their fellow recipients walked across the stage to accept their scholarships.

An excited Elissa Ladwig proudly walked across the stage four times to receive the Leonora K. Battles Scholarship, the McGovern Family College Scholarship, the Fox Family Scholarship, presented to the president of the National Honor Society; and the John W. Kerins Memorial Scholarship, presented to a student who has demonstrated a love of the theater. "My graduation gift to myself was to be in the CHS musical, Jekyll and Hyde," shared Elissa. "I worked it out so that I could do tennis as well." When asked about being the recipient of four scholarships, Chelmsford High School's 2012 Student of the Year, CHS Scholar Athlete, and Tennis MVP responded, "I am very excited, honored and surprised." Elissa will be attending Tufts to study Biochemistry.

Matt Coughlan had a smile on his face as he accepted three different scholarships: the Robert F. Brown Family Scholarship, the Joseph P. Nolan Memorial Scholarship, and the George Simonian Scholarship, presented to a student who has exemplified outstanding leadership qualities. Matt, who was president of the Class of 2012, the CHS Scholar Athlete, and the CHS Student of the Year, will be attending West Point.

"Having my scholarship presented to me by my brother was pretty cool," shared a proud Tanner Houle. Chelmsford fireman Ryan Houle ('01) presented the Professional Firefighters of Chelmsford Scholarship to his younger brother, Tanner, who will study Fire Science and play baseball at UMASS Amherst.

A very enthusiastic Kim Cilento, who received the Norman S. Smith Memorial Scholarship, awarded to a student who will attend St Anselm's, shared that she was both excited and proud to receive her scholarship.

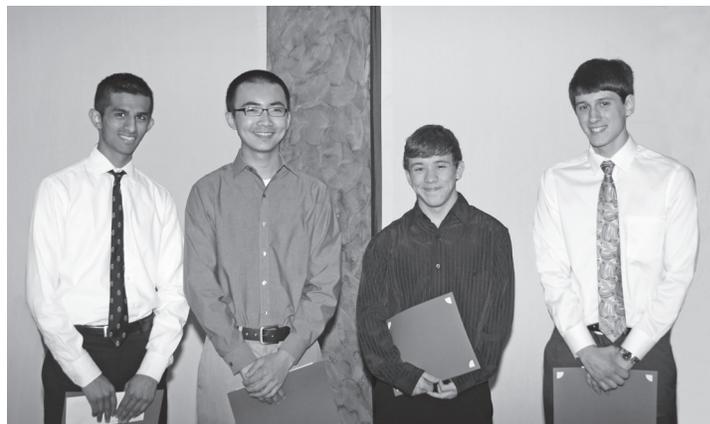

Katie Moreau, who has exemplified the CHS spirit of giving back during her four years at CHS, received the William V. Sparks Memorial Scholarship. Katie will be attending Framingham State and plans to teach in an inner city elementary school. Katie was also the recipient of the St. Mary's Knights of Columbus Award awarded to a graduating senior with a high level of involvement in community service.

It was a rather poignant moment of the evening when Derek Hill presented a bouquet of flowers to the late Harry Ayotte's wife, Jacqui as he accepted the newly established Harry J. Ayotte Memorial Scholarship, designated for a student who has earned a varsity letter in baseball.

Of the 117 scholarships awarded during the evening, nine were new scholarships: the Liza Crowley (CHS English teacher 1997-2004) Memorial Scholarship, the Generations Physical Therapy and Sports Medicine Scholarship established by David Scaplen ('87), the Glenview Pub and Grill Steven Sampsonis Memorial Scholarship, the Harry J. Ayotte Memorial Scholarship, the Judy McCarthy Olsson ('62) Memorial Scholarship, the Katie Bleck ('99) Memorial Scholarship, the Sean Marcaurelle ('90) Memorial Scholarship, the Robert Wetmore ('55) Memorial Scholarship, and the Class of 1956 Scholarship.

Since the Awards Night in May, two more scholarships have been established: the Class of 2012 Scholarship and the Patricia McSheehy Fournier Memorial Scholarship.

Thank you CHS alumni for continuing to embrace the spirit of giving back and for making this amazing evening possible. 🍷

The Chelmsford High School Alumni Association Scholarship Program

The Chelmsford High School Alumni Association Scholarship Program is part of an endowment fund that was established in 1990. At the 1990 annual meeting of the association, George Parkhurst of the class of 1932, suggested that the association establish an endowment fund as the start of a scholarship program. It was voted and George Parkhurst donated $1000 to begin the endowment concept. A general fund raiser was conducted and the first monetary awards were given in the spring of 1991.

At the annual meeting of the alumni association in 1991, George Parkhurst proposed the concept of “special scholarships”. These scholarships would be developed by donations from individuals, an organization, a business, or any other entity and would bear the name of the person or organization being recognized by the particular scholarship. Mr. Parkhurst also established the first “special scholarship” which bears his name today. These scholarships are now known as designated scholarships.

As of this issue, there are 98 of them with three more in the pipeline for next year. Any family, individual, or organization may establish a scholarship in recognition of a person, organization, or group by donating a minimum of $5000 to the Chelmsford High School Alumni Association scholarship endowment fund. This donation becomes the principal or base amount of the individual scholarship fund. This scholarship fund may be added to at any time which then increases the principal or base. The annual amount of the scholarship award is derived from the annual accrued interest on the scholarship principal. To support these scholarships, the endowment fund continues to grow because of the generous contributions of graduating classes, alumni, parents, and friends of Chelmsford High School. The Alumni Association Scholarship Awards are given only to Chelmsford High School seniors and alumni.

Albert Schweitzer once said: “We make a living with what we get but we make a life by what we give.”
